Subject: Inquiry From Vendor's Employee

Dear Mr. Webster:

The Ethics Office can't provide you with advice, because you are no longer an LAUSD employee. We are addressing your concerns with Procurement, because your employer is an LAUSD vendor. Procurement will contact your employer directly about this matter.

In light of the COVID-19 outbreak, all staff in the Ethics Office are working remotely. There is also limited access to the Beaudry building. However, we continue to support inquiries received via our Form700@lausd.net and AskEthics@lausd.net email addresses and Ask Ethics Helpline (213) 241-3330. Thank you for your understanding and professional courtesy.

Sincerely,

Subject: Re: PLEASE HELP! 7th ATTEMPT- Heath Webster- former employee [REDACTED]

CAUTION: EXTERNAL EMAIL

Hello Ethics Office,

I am being let go from my current employer if nobody helps me!

My name is Heath B. Webster, employee [REDACTED] I worked for LAUSD for 20 plus years. During that time, I was a teacher and Magnet Coordinator. In [REDACTED] from LAUSD to take a position with Edgenuity/Imagine Learning. Prior to taking my current position as an Area Partnership Manager (Sales) with Edgenuity/Imagine Learning, I spoke with Andres Equihua- HR Personnel Specialist.

I asked him if there would be a conflict of interest if I worked for Edgenuity/Imagine Learning and sold to LAUSD. I was informed that because I currently a 3rd grade teacher and that NEVER held an influential/decision maker position with LAUSD that there WOULD NOT be a conflict of interest.

Now, 6 months into working for my current employer there are concerns that we need proper documentation or proof that there is NO CONFLICT OF INTEREST for me to as a vendor to sell Edgenuity/Imagine Learning to LAUSD.

Can I please get in writing that Heath Webster former teacher for LAUSD employee [REDACTED] has NO CONFLICT OF INTEREST as a vendor to sell Edgenuity/Imagine Learning to LAUSD. This is URGENT for I may be relieved of my current job if there is no documentation.

Thank you!
