Mr. Sussmann,

In addition to the WordPress documents, we'll want DNC to authenticate the emails now available on the wikileaks site. Looks like there will be multiple releases on that front.

Beware users should be extremely cautious accessing the wikileaks site. There could be malware within the data dump.

I understand CrowdStrike is continuing their engagement. We are happy with their communication of threat indicators and also want to reiterate we are here as well if there's anything you guys need,

It's very nice to meet you, Agent Garrett.

With the Democratic Convention taking place next week, my clients will be in Philadelphia and so it's unlikely that I will be able to assist you until the following week — I hope that timing is not inconvenient for you. (I'll be in DC next week and am happy to have a conversation with you, if that would be helpful; tomorrow, I am OOO.)

Subject: Guccifer

Mr. Sussmann,

Just wanted to introduce a co-worker (cc'd) of mine who may be reaching out in the near future to try and coordinate on document authenticity relating to Guccifer 2.0. If I'm unavailable, SA Lafayette Garrett will attempt to contact you,

v/r,

Adrian
