Name Fred Chaffee, phone number XXX-XXX-XXX. Yes, I am one of your constituents in the Assembly. Your, for your district in the Assembly.

You're a lowlife, you understand that? If you were half the man that friggin' the mayor is — and I mean just half — you'd be doing a good job. But the thing of it is, your jealousy overwhelms you.

The fact that you're going to come after the mayor and try to throw him out of office just because of something you accuse him of? Better wake up, boy, cuz I got news for you, junior.

We don't have to accuse you. We can already nail you. And you'll be gone, too.

And about you running for office, for Don Young's seat? Good luck. Nobody's gonna vote for you, you moron.

You get outside your little clique that you got there and get away from the Dominion machines — you got absolutely nothing. And believe me, you're not going to be able to use them this time.

We've had enough of your BS there, boy. Or is it wanna be little girl? Yeah, you could say that's homophobic. But the thing of it is, I'm not afraid homosexuals. I'm not afraid of any of the people. You just disgust me. Pervert.

And I say that with good authority. See, and Sigmund Freud and Carl Jung both agree.

Thank you for your time. Or I should say thank you for mine.

I want to see you get smoked so bad, and you're going to, too. That's just what's gonna happen to you, Chrissy baby.

This is Fred. You've already got my phone number, you got my name. Go ahead. You use this for your political campaign.

Because when they come and ask me for a response, I'm gonna lay you out lavender dude. Or dudette, whichever you care.

I'm gonna let them know about what you're trying to get our kids to be taught in the schools. I'm gonna let them know why you weren't wearing a mask when you had the whole city locked down and wearing a mask when you were on vacation.

Go ahead — open up a real can of worms for you. Honestly, I don't care. I'd be happy to let you have it. I'd appreciate it if you gave me that chance.

Next time, don't call me on your private number. Call me on a number where I can respond to you and give me time to respond. Don't give me some pre-planned, friggin' abortion of a little speech.
