Dear Mr. O'Brien:

This is in further response to your Privacy Act (PA) request of February 28, 2022, on behalf of your client, Mr. Bryan Cheeseman, and supplements your telephone conversation on June 10, 2022, with Mr. Michael T. Heaton, Director of the Freedom of Information/Privacy Act Office.

Portions of Mr. Cheeseman's request have been referred to the Defense Intelligence Agency for their action and direct response to you.

With regard to emails previously released to Mr. Cheeseman under expedited processing, a total of eight attachments equaling 264 pages were determined to contain information that has no bearing on the topics of his request. Therefore, these portions of the records are considered non-responsive.

Please note that our office will continue to review emails dated post May 2017 as part of our rolling release. When this information is available for release, you will be notified under separate correspondence.

If Mr. Cheeseman has any questions regarding this action, he may to contact this office at 1-866-548-5651, or email the INSCOM FOIA office at: usarmy.meade.902-mi-grp.mbx.inscom-foia-service-center@mail.mil and refer to case #0151P-22. Please note that Mr. Cheeseman now has the ability to check the status of his request online via the U.S. Army Records Management and Declassification Agency (RMDA) website: <https://www.foia.army.mil/FACTS/CaseStatus.aspx>. Please refer to FOIA Control Number: FP-22-012440. If Mr. Cheeseman has any questions or wishes to discuss reformulation or an alternative time frame for the processing of his request, he may contact our FOIA Public Liaison, Mrs. Joanne Benear, for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of his request at 301-677-7856. Additionally, Mr. Cheeseman may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact
