CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JONATHAN WILLIAM MCKINNEY, Plaintiff,

v.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, Defendant.

CV 21-09620-DSF-AGR

Order to Show Cause re
Dismissal for Lack of Prosecution

The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure require a plaintiff to serve process on the defendants within 90 days of the filing of the complaint. Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). The Court may extend this deadline for good cause. Id. More than 90 days have passed since the complaint in this case was filed, and Plaintiff has not filed a proof of service. Therefore, Plaintiff is ordered to show cause no later than July 14, 2022 why the unserved defendant should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. The filing of proof of service showing that the relevant defendant was served within the 90-day period or a showing of good cause for extending the service period constitute adequate responses to this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: June 30, 2022
