8 DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES
9 STATE OF CALIFORNIA

11 In the Matter of the Accusation Against:
12 TESLA INC. dba TESLA MOTORS INC.,
13 a Vehicle Manufacturer,
14
15 Respondent.

CASE NO. 21-02188
LICENSE NO. 63277
AIMS NO. 21V1L12011
ACCUSATION

16
17 COMPLAINANT ALLEGES AS FOLLOWS:

18 PARTIES

19 1. AILENE SHORT (Complainant) brings this Accusation solely in her official
20 capacity as Branch Chief, Industry Services Branch, Occupational Licensing Operations,
21 Operations Division, Department of Motor Vehicles.

22 2. During the times set forth in the Cause for Discipline, TESLA INC. was doing
23 business as TESLA MOTORS INC. (Respondent), a corporation, operating in the State of 24 California, under vehicle manufacturer license number 63277 issued by the Department of Motor
25 Vehicles (Department). Said license is in full force and effect and is scheduled to expire on 26 October 31, 2022.

27 ///

28 ///

1 JURISDICTION

2 3. This Accusation is brought before the Office of Administrative Hearings and is
3 conducted pursuant to Vehicle Code § 11705(c).

4 4. The Department has continuing jurisdiction to file this Accusation pursuant to 5 Vehicle Code § 11721(c).

6 CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

7 5. Respondent made or disseminated statements that are untrue or misleading, and not
8 based on facts, in advertising vehicles as equipped, or potentially equipped, with advanced
9 driver assistance system (ADAS) features. On at least five dates between May 28, 2021, and 10 July 12, 2022, specifically May 28, 2021, June 3, 2022, June 14, 2022, June 28, 2022, and 11 July 12, 2022, Tesla advertised ADAS features in written marketing materials primarily on 12 Tesla’s internet website using the product label and descriptions:

13 A. “Autopilot”

14 B. “Full Self-Driving Capability”

15 C. The phrase: “The system is designed to be able to conduct short and long-distance
16 trips with no action required by the person in the driver’s seat.”

17 D. The claims: “From Home - All you will need to do is get in and tell your car where 18 to go. If you don’t say anything, your car will look at your calendar and take you
19 there as the assumed destination. Your Tesla will figure out the optimal route,
20 navigating urban streets, complex intersections and freeways. To your Destination
21 – When you arrive at your destination, simply step out at the entrance and your car
22 will enter park seek mode, automatically search for a spot and park itself. A tap on 23 your phone summons it back to you.”

24 Instead of simply identifying product or brand names, these “Autopilot” and “Full Self-Driving
25 Capability” labels and descriptions represent that vehicles equipped with the ADAS features
26 will operate as an autonomous vehicle, but vehicles equipped with those ADAS features could 27 not at the time of those advertisements, and cannot now, operate as autonomous vehicles.

28 These advertisements are a deceptive practice under Civil Code § 1770(a)(5). Tesla has

1 published disclaimers including one observed June 28, 2022, stating in part: "The currently
2 enabled features require active driver supervision and do not make the vehicle autonomous."
3 However, the disclaimer contradicts the original untrue or misleading labels and claims, which
4 is misleading, and does not cure the violation. Respondent advertised statements not based on 5 facts in violation of Cal. Code Regs. Title 13, § 260.00. Respondent made untrue or 6 misleading statements in advertisements in violation of Vehicle Code § 11713(a).
7 Respondent's acts, omissions, or conduct constitutes cause to discipline a manufacturer license
8 pursuant to Vehicle Code § 11705(a)(10).

9 PRAYER

10 6. By reason of the facts alleged in paragraph 5 in this Accusation, Respondent's acts
11 or omissions are cause for suspension or revocation of Respondent's manufacturer license and 12 special plates under Vehicle Code § 11705.

13 WHEREFORE, the undersigned prays that the Department of Motor Vehicles take such 14 action against the license of the Respondent as is warranted by the facts of this case, to wit:

- 15 a. To suspend or revoke Respondent's manufacturer license and special plates number 16 63277;
- 17 b. For an order pursuant to Government Code § 11519.1(a), if applicable, that 18 Respondent pay restitution to the persons or institutions who have suffered financial 19 loss or damage, according to proof; and
- 20 c. To order any other and further action as it may deem just and proper under the 21 circumstances.

ACCUSATION

An Accusation filed by the Chief, Occupational Licensing Branch ("Complainant"), Department of Motor Vehicles ("Department"), in which you are named as Respondent, is hereby served on you along with the enclosed Notice of Defense. THE CHARGES IN THE ACCUSATION, IF PROVED, COULD HAVE SERIOUS CONSEQUENCES ON ANY OCCUPATIONAL LICENSE ISSUED TO YOU BY THE DEPARTMENT. PLEASE READ THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION CAREFULLY:

Defending the Accusation: If you want to defend the allegations in the Accusation, you must submit a written request for a hearing (Notice of Defense) to the Department, signed by you or by an individual acting on your behalf. The request for hearing may be made by delivering or mailing the Notice of Defense as provided by Section 11506 of the Government Code, to the address checked below. If the Notice of Defense is not delivered or mailed to the Department within 15 days after the Accusation was personally served on you or mailed to you, the Department may proceed on the Accusation without a hearing. Failure to file the Notice of Defense shall constitute a waiver of your right to a hearing and the Department may take action against your license or license rights as provided by law.

Representation by Counsel and Discovery: You may, but need not, be represented by counsel at your own expense at all stages of these proceedings. If you desire the names and addresses of witnesses or an opportunity to inspect and copy the items mentioned in Section 11507.6 of the Government Code in the possession, custody or control of the Department, you may contact the Department at the address checked below. Interpreters: The hearing shall be conducted in English. If you or your witnesses do not speak or understand English, you may request an interpreter BEFORE the commencement of the hearing, and the Department will provide one.

Waiver of Certain Objections: If you sign and timely file the Notice of Defense, all parts of the Accusation which you do not expressly admit will be deemed denied. However, if you do not separately object to the Accusation on the ground that it is so indefinite or uncertain that you cannot identify the transaction or prepare a defense, all such objections to the form of the Accusation shall be deemed waived.

Burden of Proof and Governing Procedures: The Complainant has the burden of proving the charges in the Accusation before an Administrative Law Judge in an adjudicative proceeding held in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 4.5 and 5 of Title 2, Division 3, Part 1 of the Government Code (Section 11400 et seq.). After initiation of a proceeding in which a respondent or other party is entitled to a hearing on the merits, a party, upon written request made to another party, prior to the hearing and within 30 days after service by the agency of the initial pleading or within 15 days after the service of an additional pleading, is entitled to (1) obtain the names and addresses of witnesses to the extent known to the other party, including, but not limited to, those intended to be called to testify at the hearing, and (2) inspect and make a copy of any of the following in the possession or custody or under the control of the other party:

- (a) A statement of a person, other than the respondent, named in the initial administrative pleading, or in any additional pleading, when it is claimed that the act or omission of the respondent as to this person is the basis for the administrative proceeding;
- (b) A statement pertaining to the subject matter of the proceeding made by any party to another party or person;
- (c) Statements of witnesses then proposed to be called by the party and of other persons having personal knowledge of the acts, omissions or events which are the basis for the proceeding, not included in (a) or (b) above;
- (d) All writings, including, but not limited to, reports of mental, physical and blood examinations and things which the party then proposes to offer in evidence;
- (e) Any other writing or thing which is relevant and which would be admissible in evidence;

For the purpose of this section, "statements" include written statements by the person signed or otherwise authenticated by him or her, stenographic, mechanical, electrical or other recordings, or transcripts thereof, of oral statements by the person, and written reports or summaries of these oral statements.

Nothing in this section shall authorize the inspection or copying of any writing or thing which is privileged from disclosure by law or otherwise made confidential or protected as the attorney's work product.

11507.7.

- (a) Any party claiming the party's request for discovery pursuant to Section 11507.6 has not been complied with may serve and file with the administrative law judge a motion to compel discovery, naming as respondent the party refusing or failing to comply with Section 11507.6. The motion shall state facts showing the respondent party failed or refused to comply with Section 11507.6, a description of the matters sought to be discovered, the reason or reasons why the matter is discoverable under that section, that a reasonable and good faith attempt to contact the respondent for an informal resolution of the issue has been made, and the ground or grounds of respondent's refusal so far as known to the moving party.
- (b) The motion shall be served upon respondent party and filed within 15 days after the respondent party first evidenced failure or refusal to comply with Section 11507.6 or within 30 days after request was made and the party has failed to reply to the request, or within another time provided by stipulation, whichever period is longer.
- (c) The hearing on the motion to compel discovery shall be held within 15 days after the motion is made, or a later time that the administrative law judge may on the judge's own motion for good cause determine. The respondent party shall have the right to serve and file a written answer or other response to the motion before or at the time of the hearing.
- (d) Where the matter sought to be discovered is under the custody or control of the respondent party and the respondent party asserts that the matter is not a discoverable matter under the provisions of Section 11507.6, or is privileged against disclosure under those provisions, the administrative law judge may order lodged with it matters provided in subdivision (b) of Section 915 of the Evidence Code and examine the matters in accordance with its provisions.
- (e) The administrative law judge shall decide the case on the matters examined in camera, the papers filed by the parties, and such oral argument and additional evidence as the administrative law judge may allow.
- (f) Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties, the administrative law judge shall no later than 15 days after the hearing make its order denying or granting the motion. The order shall be in writing setting forth the matters the party is entitled to discover under Section 11507.6. A copy of the order shall forthwith be served by mail by the administrative law judge upon the parties. Where the order grants the motion in whole or in part, the order shall not become effective until 10 days after the date the order is served. Where the order denies relief to the moving party, the order shall be effective on the date it is served.
