STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Your Complainant is a peace officer employed by the Marshall County Sheriff's Office. In this capacity your Complainant believes the following to be true and correct.

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE: Pursuant to Minn. Stat. 609.49., intentional failure to appear for duly scheduled court appearances may result in additional criminal charges, and in addition to any arrest warrant that may otherwise be issued by the Court.

Your complainant is a peace officer with the Marshall County Sheriff's Office. In that capacity, your complainant has reviewed police reports relating to the above-named Defendant, Anders Leland Odegaard, DOB, [REDACTED] 1991 (31), and the allegations contained herein. Based upon that information, your complainant believes the following to be true and correct.

On 8/23/22, Deputy Justin McMahon with the Marshall County Sheriff's Office responded to a residence in Warren, Minnesota, County of Marshall, for a Domestic with possible serious injuries. Upon arrival at the residence, Deputy McMahon was met by the reporting party, Jim Vansickle, along with two kids that were very worked up. Vansickle said that he was flagged down on Bridge Ave and S. Division St. by the two boys. Vansickle said the two boys told him to call 911 because their mom was bleeding really bad and needed help. Deputy McMahon spoke to the older of the two boys who said that his mother was inside the house laying on the floor bleeding really bad. The boy said that he thinks that she is dead. Deputy McMahon asked the boy who was in the house, and he said his dad was inside with his mom. Deputy McMahon asked him what his dad's name was, and he said Anders Odegaard, DOB: [REDACTED] 1991, hereinafter referred to as Defendant, and his mom's name was Carissa Odegaard. Deputy McMahon had the two boys stay with Vansickle and he announced himself and entered the residence. At that time Deputy McMahon did not hear or see anyone so he called out to the Defendant. The Defendant answered back, and Deputy McMahon asked the Defendant to come out to speak to him. The Defendant came out from the kitchen area and was standing in just his gray boxer style briefs. Deputy McMahon noticed that the Defendant had what looked to be blood smeared on his left eyebrow and blood in his hair. Deputy McMahon asked the Defendant what was going on and all the Defendant would say was "I don't feel right". Deputy McMahon asked the Defendant where the injured party was, and he didn't answer. Deputy McMahon took a quick glance down the hallway and noticed an unresponsive female laying in the west entry or the front doorway. Deputy McMahon advised the Defendant that he was not under arrest, but he was going to be detained in handcuffs for his safety and for Deputy McMahon's safety while he attended to the victim. Upon approaching Carissa, Deputy McMahon noticed that she was not breathing and had severe head trauma and had blood pooling on the floor by her head. Deputy McMahon positioned Carissa and advised dispatch that CPR was in progress and that he needed the ambulance crew inside as soon as possible. Deputy McMahon continued this process until Warren Ambulance arrived on scene and took over the compressions.

Deputy McMahon noticed that Deputy Mark Ellerbusch and Deputy Brandon Nelson were on scene, along with Deputy Hayden Sczepanski. Deputy McMahon walked the Defendant outside and Deputy McMahon asked the Defendant if he was willing to talk to him. The only thing the Defendant would say was "I don't feel right". At that time Deputy McMahon placed the Defendant under arrest for Domestic Assault and he was transported to the Marshall County Jail by Deputy Sczepanski and turned over to corrections for the booking process.

Deputy McMahon turned his attention back to the kids who were still with the reporting party, Jim Vansickle, out in front of the house. Deputy McMahon advised the two boys that their mother was being transported to the hospital and that the deputies were going to transport them to the Sheriff's Office along with the other three siblings that were waiting in the victim's running vehicle. Deputy Brandon Nelson transported the children to the Sheriff's Office and Deputy McMahon went back into the house and picked up the extra equipment from the ambulance crew. While inside, Deputy McMahon noticed that the house was messy with dirty dishes that had been sitting in stagnate water and dirty clothes. Deputy McMahon also noticed that the washing machine had been recently started and that it looked pretty soapy inside the washer.

Deputy McMahon turned off the washing machine and walked through out the main floor of the residence. Deputy McMahon noticed two possible blood spots on the floor in what he would say would be the dining room where he first came into contact with the Defendant. While looking around, Deputy McMahon didn't notice really any blood until he got to where the victim was laying, which led him to believe that was where the most violent part of the assault occurred.

Deputy McMahon was then advised by Sheriff Jason Boman that the MN BCA was contacted and would be on scene around 2100 hours. Deputy McMahon secured the scene until the arrival of the MN BCA Crime Scene team. Deputy McMahon advised the MN BCA of his involvement and all of his concerns with the case.

Supporting Report by Mark Ellerbusch

On August 23, 2022 the Marshall County Sheriff's Office received a call about a domestic in progress in Warren, MN at the Anders Odegaard, DOB: [REDACTED] 91, hereinafter referred to as Defendant, residence. Deputy Mark Ellerbusch arrived on scene and Deputy Justin McMahon was already on scene with the Defendant in custody and CPR was in progress on Carissa Odegaard. The Defendant and Carissa were married but had been divorced for about 2 years. They have 5 kids together. All the kids were at the house at the time of the domestic assault. The Marshall County Sheriff's Office took the children to the Sheriff's Office to get them into a safe place. Carissa was badly beaten up by the Defendant so the Sheriff's Department wanted to forensically interview the children to help determine what occurred at the residence on August 23, 2022.

Deputy Ellerbusch and Sheriff Jason Boman performed the forensic interviews on the children. The first interview that was performed was on OOO. He is 2 years old. Deputy Ellerbusch and Sheriff Boman tried to speak with OOO but he would not say anything. OOO did see what happened because his mother, Carissa, was holding him at the time of the assault.

The second interview was done on OLO. He is 9 years old. OLO stated that he stayed at his dad's house on August 22, 2022 and woke up there on August 23, 2022. OLO stated that when he woke up he pretty much read all day until his mother came to pick him up, along with his 4 siblings. OLO stated that his mother came to pick him up at about 5:00 pm and his father and mother got into a big fight. OLO went into the house and his mother was holding his little brother. OLO stated that when he went into the house his mother was lying on the floor. OLO stated he believed his father grabbed a knife or a flipper (spatula) and hit his mother with that. He thought that his father killed his mother or made her pass out. There was blood all over. He said that his father was telling him to get out of the house. That is when OLO ran to the highway to flag someone down to call 911. The driver drove to the house and that is when 911 was called. OLO stated that when he walked into the house his dad was hollering and yelling and was hitting his mother. OLO stated that he has seen his father hit his mother before, usually with his hand.

The third interview was with LO. He is 8 years old. LO stated the day started out good and was playing outside with his siblings. He stated that his dad was working on the computer in the house most of the morning. They had spaghetti for lunch and they read a book in the afternoon. He said that his mother came to pick them up for church and his father didn't want her to take the kids and that is when the fighting started. He said mom and dad were fighting over the little brother. Mom and dad were tackling each other, and his mother had a cut on her arm. LO got his little brother away from his parents and had to wash him up because there was blood on him. LO stated that the fight/argument started outside in the back yard and moved into the house. He said that his dad was holding a spatula outside and maybe cut his mother with that. LO went into the house and saw his father tackling his mother and started choking her. That is when his mother said call 911. His mother was on her stomach and his father was on top of her choking her. There was a lot of blood all over and he stepped over his mom at that time. He said that he did tap on his mother's foot, but she didn't respond to the touch.

Deputy Mark Ellerbusch interviewed NO and EO but they did not say anything because they were in the vehicle and did not see the altercation take place.

Both the kids that saw the assault take place said they saw their father on top of their mother hitting her or choking her.

On the afternoon of August 24, 2022, Sanford Hospital of Fargo, North Dakota, informed the family of Carissa Odegaard and the Marshall County Sheriff's Office that Ms. Odegaard had no significant brain function. In the near future, life support will be removed and Ms. Odegaard's vital organs will be removed and donated.
