RE: Administrative Appeal of FOIA Request 1543515-000

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

On March 22, 2022, our law firm's client, Dr. Martin Julius Murray, submitted a FOIA request to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that sought, among other things, records relating to the Maydays Demonstration from May 3-5, 1971 in or near Washington, D.C. The request is attached as Exhibit 1.

On May 5, 2022, the FBI issued a final responded to Dr. Murray's request stating that responsive records had not been located and that all potentially responsive records had been transferred to the National Archives and Records Administration. The FBI's response is attached as Exhibit 2.

Publicly available records on the FBI Vault responsive to the request exist. One example is attached as Exhibit 3. The existence of records responsive to this request in FBI custody cast serious doubts on the adequacy of the agency's search.

For these reasons, Dr. Martin Julius Murray formally appeals on two grounds. First, on the grounds that the FBI failed to conduct an adequate search, and second on the grounds that the FBI failed to produce all responsive records.

II. THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT

The purpose of FOIA is to “open agency action to the light of public scrutiny.” Dep’t of the Air Force v. Rose, 425 U.S. 352, 372 (1976). Former President Obama reinforced FOIA’s strong presumption of disclosure with regard to all FOIA decisions. See Presidential Memorandum for Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies Concerning the Freedom of Information Act, 74 Fed. Reg. 4683 (Jan. 21, 2009) (directing agencies to administer FOIA under a presumption that, “[i]n the face of doubt, openness prevails”). Former Attorney General Eric Holder issued FOIA guidelines that reinforce a commitment to open government, encouraging federal agencies to both “make discretionary releases of information” and to “make partial disclosures” when an agency determines full disclosure is not possible. See Former Attorney General Eric Holder’s Memorandum for Heads of Executive Departments and Agencies (Mar. 19, 2009).

In his memo, the Former Attorney General also announced a “foreseeable harm” standard for defending agency decisions to withhold information under FOIA. See id. Thus, the DOJ will defend an agency’s denial of a FOIA request “only if (1) the agency reasonably foresees that disclosure would harm an interest protected by one of the statutory exemptions, or (2) disclosure is prohibited by law.” Id. These authorities have not been changed by the current Administration and remain in effect.

FOIA “mandates a policy of broad disclosure of government documents” and carries a strict disclosure mandate that requires federal agencies to expeditiously disclose requested records to requesters. See 5 U.S.C. § 552, Church of Scientology v. Dep’t of the Army, 611 F.2d 738, 741 (9th Cir. 1980). Consequently, any inquiry under FOIA brings with it a “strong presumption in favor of disclosure.” U.S. Dep’t of State v. Ray, 502 U.S. 164, 173 (1991). To that end, nothing in FOIA should be read to “authorize withholding of information or limit the availability of records to the public, except as specifically stated.” See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress recognized that in certain limited instances, records may be exempt from FOIA’s broad disclosure mandate, and thus created nine categories of exemptions. § 552(b). These exemptions, however, “must be narrowly construed in light of FOIA’s dominant objective of disclosure, not secrecy.” Maricopa Audubon Soc’y. v. U.S. Forest Serv., 108 F.3d 1082, 1085 (9th Cir. 1996).

Accordingly, because FOIA carries a presumption in favor of disclosure, and indeed, because, “FOIA requesters face an information asymmetry given that the agency possesses the requested information and decides whether it should be withheld or disclosed,” COMPTEL v. U.S. Federal Comm’n., 910 F. Supp. 2d 100, 111 (D.D.C. 2012) (internal citations omitted), agencies bear the burden of justifying the withholding of any records that are responsive to a FOIA request. 5 U.S.C. §552 (a)(4). An agency must provide “a relatively detailed justification, specifically identifying the reasons why a particular exemption is relevant and correlating those claims with the particular part of a withheld document to which they apply.” See King v. Dept. of Justice, 830 F.2d 210, 219 (D.C. Cir. 1987) (agency must provide); see also Coastal States Gas Corp. v. Dep’t of Energy, 617 F.2d 854, 861 (D.C. Cir. 1980) (holding an agency’s disclosure of “who wrote the [document], to whom it was addressed, its date, and a brief description” was “patently inadequate” to establish exemption under FOIA).

Under the FOIA Improvement Act of 2016, agencies are prohibited from denying requests for information under FOIA unless the agency reasonably believes release of the information will harm an interest that is protected by the exemption. See FOIA Improvement Act of 2016 (Public Law No. 114-185), codified at 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(8)(A).

III. FOIA REQUIRES THAT AN AGENCY PROVIDE RECORDS RESPONSIVE TO THE REQUEST

After a valid request has been made to the agency, that agency must “make reasonable efforts to search for records.” 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(3)(A).

FOIA requires that a records responsive to the request be provided to the requester. Id. Here, the FBI holds

VI. CONCLUSION

As described above, the FBI has failed to conduct a reasonable search in response to a FOIA request that specifically describes the documents sought. It is in possession of potentially responsive records.

Accordingly, the FBI must conduct an adequate search for responsive records and produce all responsive records by a date certain. In so doing, the FBI must also provide an estimated date of completion of its release of the records. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (a)(7)(B).

Please notify me of the date you receive this FOIA Appeal and the number you assign to identify this FOIA Appeal. I expect your timely resolution of this matter. B. TIME FRAME OF THIS REQUEST

The time frame for this request includes records created or received on or after September 1, 1967 to December 31, 1974.

C. INFORMATION HELPFUL TO THE FBI IN FULFILLING THIS REQUEST

My client, Martin Julius Murray was a student at the University of Texas in Austin, Texas. He was active in the University of Texas Chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS). He organized and participated in numerous meetings and protests. His brother, Mark Francis Murray, and his friend, Martin Alexander Wiginton (now deceased) also participated in meetings and protests. All three of them traveled to Washington, DC for protests Justice Department and National Capitol in May 1971.

My client has signed DOJ Form 361 and has signed a Declaration of Martin Julius Murray. These documents are attached to this request.

My client's brother, Mark Francis Murray, has signed DOJ Form 361 and has signed a Declaration of Mark Francis Murray. These documents are attached to this request.

Martin Alexander Wiginton, born February 4, 1933 and died March 10, 1992, is a deceased well known public figure, active in the anti-war movement, nightclubs and the business community of Austin, Texas. Articles about him and his public work are in a number of Austin and Texas publications.

Finally, Mark Francis Murray made a request to the FBI for records. The records received by him are attached to assist the FBI in responding to the present request.

D. HOW RESPONSIVE RECORDS SHOULD BE PROVIDED

My client requests copies of the responsive records for this FOIA request be provided in a digital format, either via email, or stored on a thumb drive, CD or other electronic data storage device. See 5 U.S.C. §552 (a)(3) B). Providing these records in an electronic format will save agency staff processing time, as well as reducing the cost of making paper copies of all responsive records.

E. RECORDS FOR PUBLIC AWARENESS CAMPAIGN; PROCESSING FEES

My client is a professor at the University of Michigan. He has earned his Ph.D. in Sociology, at University of Texas Austin, in 1975. Writing and research are integral to his work. He has published papers on his experience in the anti-war movement in Austin ("Building Fires on the Prairie," in Radical Sociologists and the Movement) and scholarly books on global urbanism and Johannesburg (South Africa). His academic resume is attached.

My client is writing a book about his experiences as an activist in SDS, New Left Education Project, Gerard Winstanley Memorial Caucus, the Armadillo Mayday Tribe, and other organizations, and the deplorable conduct of the FBI and other agencies in suppressing the Assembly Rights Americans should enjoy under the First Amendment to our Constitution.

My client has the ability to get the information he receives analyzed and summarized so that current policy makers and media do not make the mistakes of the past. His story weaves the personal relationships he developed during the period with the documented abuses of the FBI and law enforcement. He has contacted a number of potential publishers of this work (Temple University Press, University of Texas Press, Dolph Briscoe Center for American History (University of Texas) Press. He has plans to publish his recollections of this period of political repression in popular and scholarly articles in various outlets.

My client is entitled to and requests a waiver of all copying, duplication and processing fees. His work is in the public interest and, because he is writing a book, he has media status for this request.

My client's efforts, once he receives the records, will lead to increased public awareness of the waste of taxpayer money that was involved in the improper and unethical and illegal attacks on the freedoms of Vietnam War protesters. He is particularly interested in writing about efforts of undercover police informants to lure unsuspecting activists into illegal acts via methods of entrapment.

As an academic, my client is eligible for a fee waiver for this request.

He has the ability to properly process, summarize and analyze the records he hopes to receive here. My client plans to have a website where he will release all records to the public once he receives them. This will further foster public understanding of what happened to Vietnam War protesters.

My client is pre-authorizing payments up to $30 for the processing of this request but only if the FBI complies with all statutory deadlines in FOIA. Congress amended FOIA in 2007. An effect of the 2007 Amendments was to impose consequences on agencies that fail to comport with FOIA's requirements. See S.Rep. No. 110-59. To underscore Congress's belief in the importance of the statutory time limit, the 2007 Amendments declare that "[a]n agency shall not assess search fees ... if the agency fails to comply with any time limit" of FOIA. § 552(a)(4)(A)(viii) (emphasis added). Bensman v National Park Service, 806 F.Supp.2d 31 (DCD 2011).

F. POLICY AND LEGAL DIRECTION FOR OPEN GOVERNMENT

Disclosure of the above referenced agency records are also sought in order to promote government transparency, and to reflect the Administration's policy to support our nation's fundamental commitment to open government. As the Supreme Court has observed, "virtually every document generated by an agency is available in one form or another, unless it falls within one of the Act's nine exemptions." NLRB v. Sears, Roebuck & Co., 421 U.S. 132, 136 (1975). FOIA was designed to "pierce the veil of administrative secrecy and to open agency action to the light of public scrutiny,” see, e.g., Dept. of the Air Force v. Rose, 425 U.S. 352, 361 (1976), and in order “to ensure an informed citizenry, vital to the functioning of a democratic society, needed to check against corruption and to hold the governors accountable to the governed.” NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 242 (1978); see also Judicial Watch, Inc. v. Rossotti, 326 F.3d 1309, 1310 (D.C. Cir. 2003); United States Dept. of Justice v. Reporters Comm. for Freedom of the Press, 489 U.S. 749, 773 (1989).

The above-described agency records are subject to disclosure under FOIA, and are not otherwise exempt from disclosure pursuant to FOIA’s nine statutory exemptions. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(1) - (9). To the extent that a determination is made by your FOIA office staff that any limited portions of the records listed above will be withheld from disclosure for this request, FOIA expressly requires all agencies to disclose “[a]ny reasonably segregable portion of a record . . . after deletion of the portions of the record which are exempt.” 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). See, e.g., Oglesby v. U.S. Dept. of Army, 79 F.3d 1172, 1178 (D.C. Cir. 1996); see also Abdelfattah v. U.S. Dept. Of Homeland Security, 488 F.3d 178, 186-187 (3rd Cir).

The 2007 Openness Promotes Effectiveness in our National Government Act amendments to FOIA (the “OPEN Government Act”) requires identification of the amount of any material withheld, the location of any withholdings, a direct reference to the specific statutory exemption supporting each withholdings asserted, and if technically possible, also require that this information shall “be indicated at the place in the record where such deletion is made.” See 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). Therefore, I would appreciate your assistance in expressly identifying any exempt responsive records (or portions thereof) and the applicable FOIA exemptions for any responsive materials withheld for this FOIA request.

Please inform my office in writing if there are any “unusual circumstances” that will cause delay in responding to this FOIA request, or providing the records which are requested, and in addition, please provide the approximate date that you anticipate a final response will be provided.

G. AUTHORIZATION

Attached to this request is a Declaration of Martin Julius Murray, the Declaration of Mark Francis Murray, the DOJ Form 361 signed by Martin Julius Murray, and the DOJ Form 361 signed by Mark Francis Murray. These authorizations provide the FBI with the information and authority it needs to search for and release responsive records. The declarations, in particular, authorizes C. Peter Sorenson and the Sorenson Law Office to make this request and to receive records on behalf of Martin Julius Murray. The declarations expressly waive privacy rights – as they may apply to C. Peter Sorenson and the Sorenson Law Office – relating to this FOIA request and any records that the FBI has in response to this request. Furthermore, the declarations establish that either Martin Julius Murray or Mark Francis Murray is willing and able to sign any forms the agency may require to formalize the waiver of privacy rights to C. Peter Sorenson and the Sorenson Law Office.

H. ESTIMATED DATE OF COMPLETION REQUESTED

The Sorenson Law Office, on behalf of our client, specifically requests the agency to provide an estimated date of completion for this request.

FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches and Standard Search Policy. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems, such as the Central Records System (CRS), or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. The CRS is an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. The standard search policy is a search for main entity records in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include a search for reference entity records, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files.
 - a. Main Entity Records – created for individuals or non-individuals who are the subjects or the focus of an investigation
 - b. Reference Entity Records- created for individuals or non-individuals who are associated with a case but are not known subjects or the focus of an investigation
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative "FBI file." An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.

Mayday Charge Dropped

Prosecutor Frees Son of Ex-Senator

By Bart Barnes
Washington Post Staff Writer

Michael B. McCarthy, son of former Minnesota Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, and one of those arrested during the Mayday antiwar protests here last month, saw his case thrown out of court yesterday after prosecutors said they were unable to find out why he had been charged.

"They had no case against him whatsoever," said McCarthy's lawyer, Monroe H. Freedman, an assertion that was denied by Corporation Counsel C. Francis Murphy.

Murphy said there must have been a solid basis for the initial decision to prosecute McCarthy. He said documents containing evidence against McCarthy could have been lost between his office and the courthouse and that this could explain the inability of the prosecutor to locate the policeman who had arrested McCarthy.

"I could not determine who the arresting officer was so I was unable to find out what the defendant had done to get himself arrested, Assistant Corporation Counsel Andrew Zuccotti said. He ordered the disorderly conduct charge against McCarthy dropped when the case was called for trial yesterday.

McCarthy was one of only a handful of Mayday cases in which the corporation counsel's office had decided to go ahead with prosecutions in the belief that there was enough evidence to justify a

"It seems clear to me that it was for political reasons that prosecutors decided to go ahead with McCarthy's case at all, Freedman said.

McCarthy's name was culled from a list of 2,400 Mayday defendants who had demanded trials on the charges against them. Only 24 from that list were recommended for prosecution and of that 24, only one has been convicted so far.

Of the more than 7,000 persons arrested here May 3, only 36 remain to be prosecuted. All the others have had charges dropped, forfeited collateral or been acquitted and a handful have been convicted.

About 1,000 persons arrested May 4 in a sit down demonstration outside the Justice Department and another 1,000 arrested the following day on the Capitol steps remain to be processed by the courts.

McCarthy, whose father unsuccessfully sought the 1968 Democratic presidential nomination and ran against then President Johnson in the New Hampshire primary that year, is a junior at Harvard.

He said he was arrested about 9:15 a.m. on May 3 in a police sweep at 20th and M Streets NW.

Protesters that morning had planned to block traffic on the 14th Street Bridge and at other locations around town in an attempt to close down the government.

"But we were unable to reach the target area," McCarthy said and they were returning to Georgetown when police arrested them.

There was no field arrest form on McCarthy and it was not until 4 a.m. the following day at the Washington Coliseum that his arrest papers were filled out and he was informed he was being charged with disorderly conduct, he said.

"I wasn't charged with anything when I was arrested," he said.
