RIGHTS OF MEMBER

1. You have all the rights specified in Article 15 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ), in Part V of the Manual for Courts-Martial (MCM), and in Air Force Instruction (AFI) 51-202. These rights are summarized below:

a. You have the right to consult a lawyer before making any decisions, and to assist you throughout the proceedings. A military defense counsel is available to advise you, free of charge, or you may retain civilian counsel at your own expense.

b. You have the right (1) to accept nonjudicial proceedings under Article 15, UCMJ, in which case your commander (or the commander to whom this action is sent) will decide whether you committed the alleged misconduct, or (2) to demand trial by court-martial which requires proof of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. You have 3 duty days (72 hours) to make this decision, unless you request an extension of time and the commander grants the extension. (You have additional rights at a trial by court-martial which you should ask your attorney to explain.) Your acceptance of nonjudicial proceedings is not an admission that you committed the alleged misconduct. The commander will make that decision only after you present your evidence or statement in defense, if any.

c. You have the right to examine the evidence against you before you make any decisions. Your attorney will also assist you in making a statement and/or obtaining evidence in your defense, and for use in extenuation and mitigation.

d. If you accept nonjudicial proceedings, you have the right (1) to make a full oral and/or written presentation to the commander who will decide your punishment (or a designee, in some cases), (2) to say nothing at all (according to Article 31, UCMJ), (3) to present witnesses who are reasonably available, and (4) to be accompanied by someone to speak on your behalf. You are not entitled to have a lawyer accompany you. You may request the proceeding be open to the public. The commander may open the proceeding over your objection. You should consult with your attorney because your statements may be used against you in a later proceeding.

2. If the commander imposes punishment, you have 5 days to decide whether to appeal the punishment to the next superior commander. You have the right to consult a lawyer before deciding whether to appeal and to assist you in your appeal. In your appeal, you may present additional matters.

MAXIMUM PERMISSIBLE PUNISHMENTS

If the commander imposing punishment is a:

1. General Court-Martial Convening Authority or General Officer and you are:

a. An officer: Forfeiture of one-half month's pay per month for two months, 60 days restriction, 30 days arrest in quarters, and a reprimand.

b. Enlisted: Forfeiture of one-half month's pay per month for two months, 60 days restriction, 45 days extra duty, 30 days correctional custody, a reprimand, and reduction of one grade; E-4 (SrA) and below may be reduced to E-1; E-8 and E-9 may be reduced one grade only by a commander who has promotion authority to those grades.

2. Special Court-Martial Convening Authority, Colonel, or Lieutenant Colonel, and you are:

a. An officer: 30 days restriction and a reprimand.

b. Enlisted: Same as paragraph 1b. above.

3. Major and you are in grade E-1 through E-7: Forfeiture of one-half month's pay per month for two months, 60 days restriction, 45 days extra duty, 30 days correctional custody, a reprimand, and reduction of one grade for E-4 (Sgt) to E-6; E-4 (SrA) and below may be reduced to E-1.

4. Company grade officer, and you are in grade E-1 through E-7: Forfeiture of 7 days pay, 14 days restriction, 14 days extra duty, 7 days correctional custody, a reprimand, and reduction of one grade for E-5 and below only.

Note: Restriction and extra duties may be combined to run concurrently, but the total may not exceed the maximum imposable or extra duties. If reduction is imposed, forfeiture of pay is based on the grade to which the member was reduced, even if the reduction was suspended.

 , AMC

Enter responses to Items 1c, 6c, and 10 below. (Please identify each response by Item number.)

Violation of the UCMJ, Article 111

You did, at Kadena Air Base , Okinawa, Japan, on or about 8 September 2001, at Kadena Air Base, gate 2, physically control a vehicle, to wit: a passenger car, while drunk.

Item 5 (continued)

NOTICE OF RECOUPMENT OF EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING REGARDING RECOUPMENT OF EDUCATION ASSISTANCE, SPECIAL PAY, OR BONUSES

I understand the Air Force is entitled to recoup a portion of education assistance, special pay, or bonus money which I received, if any, if I separate before completing the period of active duty I agreed to serve. I understand this recoupment applies regardless whether I voluntarily separate or I am involuntarily discharged for misconduct. I further understand: (1) Recoupment will apply regardless of the basis for involuntary discharge, if the reason for separation is not homosexual conduct (in which case, additional rules apply); (2) The recoupment in all other cases is an amount that bears the same ratio to the total amount or cost provided to me, as the unserved portion of active duty bears to the total period of active duty I agree to serve; (3) That if I dispute that I am indebted for educational assistance, a board or other authority will make findings and recommendations concerning the validity of the indebtedness.

Reduction to the grade of Airman Basic, but that portion of the punishment in excess of reduction to the grade of Airman is suspended until 24 March 2002, after which time it will be remitted without further action, unless sooner vacated. Your new date of rank as Airman is 25 September 2001. 30 days extra duty and a reprimand.

You are hereby reprimanded.

Knowingly operating a passenger vehicle while under the influence of alcohol is a serious offense. Drunken drivers have caused serious injuries and even death to themselves and others. As a member of the Air Force it is your duty not to only uphold the law but to enforce it as well. When you decided to get behind the wheel of a vehicle after indulging in intoxicating liquor you brought discredit upon yourself, 733rd Air Mobility Squadron, and the Air force. I expect you have learned from this incident and further misconduct by you of any type will not be tolerated.
