PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT FOR ARREST

Indiana State Police Detective Matt Busick affirms that he believes and has good cause to believe on the below date in the County of Washington in the State of Indiana, DAWN ELAINE COLEMAN committed the offense(s) of:

- Neglect of a Dependent Resulting in Death, a Level 1 Felony
- Obstruction of Justice, a Level 6 Felony

My belief is based upon facts and information constituting probable cause as set forth below:

1. On April 16, 2022, I, Detective Matt Busick, was assigned to lead a Death Investigation in the Pekin area of Washington County, Indiana.
2. On the evening of Saturday, April 16, 2022, Jeffrey Meredith called 911 and reported finding the body of a young black male child in a suitcase in the woods off Holder Road in southeastern Washington County. Meredith stated he was mushroom hunting on his property located on the southside of the road and had crossed over to the property that runs along the northside of Holder Road. Holder Road is a dead-end road; however, the road is not marked as a dead-end.
3. When Meredith saw the suitcase, which was not covered and could be viewed from the roadway, he approached and opened it. Inside he located a pillow on a closed black trash bag. He ripped open the trash bag and found what he described as being a young black male child.
4. Washington County Deputy Matt Hein was the first to arrive at the scene and approached and manipulated the suitcase and trash bag to confirm that it contained the body of a young black male child.
5. I arrived on scene at approximately 9:40 p.m. and was briefed by Sgt. David Mitchell and was walked around to the east side of the scene to view the suitcase.

6. I then spoke with a resident who lives on Holder Road. His residence is covered by video security with one camera focused on the end of his driveway, which also captures a portion of Holder Road below his home closer to the area where the suitcase was discovered. He voluntarily gave us the hard drive to the security system.
7. After the scene was photographed, the suitcase was closed and placed in a bag supplied by the Washington County Coroner. The bag was secured and transported to the Washington County Coroner's Office at approximately 12:10 a.m. on April 17, 2022.
8. On April 19, 2022, an autopsy was conducted of the unidentified male child.
9. On April 19, 2022, Indiana State Police Lab Analysts transported the black trash bags located within the suitcase to the State Police Lab for fingerprint testing and analysis.
10. On June 29, 2022 I was contacted by Mallory Webb, Indiana State Police Forensic Scientist, who stated she had obtained a fingerprint match from two of the trash bags located in the suitcase.
11. The match came back to: Dejaune Ludie Anderson, Georgia Driver's License and Address of [REDACTED] Atlanta, GA. 30318-4019; DOB 09/21/1985; [REDACTED]
12. On July 25, 2022 I was contacted by Mallory Webb, Indiana State Police Forensic Scientist, who stated she had obtained a second fingerprint match from the black trash bag located in the suitcase.
13. The match came back to: Dawn Elaine Coleman; Louisiana Driver's License and Address; [REDACTED] Shreveport, LA 71101; DOB 03/11/1982; [REDACTED]
14. After receiving confirmation of the first fingerprint match on June 29, 2022, I began to investigate Dejaune Anderson.
15. It was discovered that Dejaune Anderson is the owner of Ashley Logistics Corporation with a listed business address of [REDACTED] Atlanta, GA. 30318.

18. South Carolina Highway Patrol attempted to stop Anderson for driving 92 mph in a 60-mph zone. Anderson did not stop and proceeded to lead Troopers on a pursuit lasting approximately 30 miles before she ran out of gas. Anderson was driving a 2019 Dodge Challenger bearing Georgia plate [REDACTED] returning to her business, Ashley Logistics Corporation. In the vehicle with Anderson was Dawn Elaine Coleman, DOB 03/11/1982, and a child that Anderson stated was her 5-year-old son by the name of REDACTED and gave his date of birth at REDACTED. Anderson stated Coleman was her sister.

19. When the vehicle came to a stop neither Anderson nor Coleman listened to commands and would not open the doors. Troopers had to breach the back driver's side window to make entry to the vehicle.
20. Coleman was transported with the child to a Hilton Hotel and given information on how to contact Anderson who was transported to the Colleton County Jail.
21. On March 31, 2022, Dejaune Anderson was arrested by the Louisville Metro Police Department for Robbery – 2nd Degree outside of Von Maur at the Oxmoor Mall located at 7900 Shelbyville Road in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky. The report states that during this incident Anderson was stopped by mall security when she exited the store due to loss prevention witnessing her concealing clothing items in a bag. When stopped, Anderson became violent and punched the security officer in the face.
22. While in custody at the Jefferson County Kentucky Jail, Anderson made two calls to a woman who is believed to be Dawn Coleman. Coleman told Anderson, we are ok and will be staying at her cousin's by the name of Vera.

Magic is real curses are real and there are some very powerful evil beings there that will curse your womb and then some. Nothing is what It seems and we are catering to evil beings in children avatars that aren't even children.
