

AFFIDAVIT

My name is Steven Logan. In 2001 at the age of 18 I was incarcerated in the Marion county Jail for the first time in my young life and while I was incarcerated I came in contact with a man by the name of Richard Hull who was being held for murder. He had a co-defendant by the name of Sarah Pender. Richard Hull directed me to write a letter claiming to be Sarah in which she would confess to the crimes in hopes of Richard Hull receiving a lesser sentence. Richard Hull showed me samples of Sarah Penders hand writing in the form of other letters in order to try and copy her handwriting. Richard Hull dictated the words that needed to be used in the letter telling me word for word what to write and quite frankly after learning what he had done I was terrified. I felt very alone, threatened for my safety as well as my life now knowing what Richard Hull was capable of doing to me and possibly my family had I not complied with his demands. I believe I was bullied manipulated and coerced into writing this letter used against Sarah Pender at her trial as evidence to convict her at her trial. In 2005 when question about the letter I lied and said that I did not write it. I am deeply remorseful for my stupidity along with being young, ignorant, gullible, afraid and not necessarily aware of the severity of the situation and the consequences of my actions. I felt like I was in a lose lose situation in that moment. I want to take this opportunity to be a man by doing the right thing by telling the truth and right my wrongs. I am also doing this in hopes that it helps get Sarah justice and gives her a second chance at life with her family. I am willing to testify to these facts in court.

Sincerely,

Steven Logan
