Additional Comments (Non-Confidential)

23. Please make any additional comments that you wish to bring to the Council's attention about your experience and suitability for this judgeship.

I was born in Nuremberg, Germany, where my father was stationed while in the U.S. Army. My father's military service instilled in me a sense of duty for public service at an early age. We moved quite often while I was growing up, including stops at command posts in Kansas, California, Georgia and Virginia.

My high school years were spent in the Netherlands, where I attended AFCENT International, with children of other military families from Britain, Germany, Canada, Turkey, Norway, and Iceland. It was an experience for which I am grateful because it broadened my conception of my place in this world.

I received a journalism degree from the University of Kansas where working for both the student newspaper and radio station helped hone my skills of investigation, research, oral communication, and writing under deadline pressure.

Additional Comments (Continued)

I helped establish the Healing to Wellness Court, a joint state-tribal therapeutic court that offers alternatives to incarceration for non-violent offenders who suffer from substance abuse. The multi-disciplinary team accepted its first program participant this month (July 2022).

I chair a quarterly stakeholders mental commitment (Title 47) working group with hospital, health care/petitioners, and law enforcement personnel in Sitka. I previously chaired a similar stakeholders Title 47 working group in Prince of Wales.

I enjoy administering the Oath of Office to graduates of the State Trooper's Public Safety Training Academy - semiannually since 2018.

I received the Alaska Bar Association's professionalism award in 2017.

I received the Public Defender Agency's litigator of the year award in 2011.

I have devoted my career to the ideal of public service. It is my belief that public service, and in particular participation in the judicial system, is a sacred obligation. My experience is well-rounded, emphasizing both trial and appellate work, and includes litigation in federal, state and tribal courts.

It would be a great honor, and a tremendous responsibility, to serve as a Justice on the Alaska Supreme Court.
