Good afternoon all,

Apologies if you're OSINT shops are already tracking this one too - it does not meet our threshold for SARs but I wanted to share for your awareness as it pertains to some of your protectees and AORs. A citizen submitted the link through iWatch.

An website called Red State Secession has posted an article requesting that users submit addresses of residences and offices of politicians, judges, and lobbyists. They are also asking for those individuals' routes to and from the event and have provided the secure email address secession@runbox.com for submissions.

Please see the attached screenshot; the link to the article is www.redstatesecession.org/why-the-second-american-revolution-starts-jan-6
