Voters Strongly Reject Constitutional Carry Proposal and Amnesty for Gun Violations

- * Voters rejected two ideas that come from opposite ends of the partisan spectrum.

By a margin of 22.1% support to 71.9% oppose, voters overwhelmingly reject making Michigan a Constitutional Carry state where anyone can legally carry a gun with them without a concealed weapons permit.

62.6% of voters STRONGLY OPPOSE making Michigan a Constitutional Carry state.

Gun owners oppose the Constitutional Carry proposal by a margin of 28.2%-67.4% -- with 57.3% of gun owners STRONGLY OPPOSED.

But staunch Second Amendment advocates support the Constitutional Carry proposal by a margin of 59.8%-35.4%, with 44.4% STRONGLY SUPPORTIVE – the only substantial base of support for the proposal.

- * By a margin of 34.5% support to 47.2% opposed, Michigan voters oppose a proposal that would allow a family member to report if a family member convicted of a felony that is on probation or parole and is in possession of a gun to the authorities guaranteeing that their family member would be given amnesty for that gun possession.

32.6% STRONGLY OPPOSE the proposal. But 18.3% of voters were undecided.

There are few partisan differences in this proposal with Democratic, Republican and Independent voters all opposed to the proposal.

Voters Do Not Blame Prosecutors

- * Voters were asked if they thought their county prosecutor was too aggressive, too lenient or about right in prosecuting gun violations.

The reality is voters simply do not know – with 53.4%, a majority of voters, unsure.

1.3% said their prosecutor was too aggressive. 18.6% said they were too lenient. 25.8% said they were about right.

Voters Reach Agreement on Policy, But Messaging Rhetoric Sends Voters into Their Political Corners

* Voters were read two competing statements and asked which one they agree with more.

51.7% Guns aren't the problem. People are the problem. If police and prosecutors would just enforce the laws we have on the books we wouldn't be talking about limiting our second amendment right to own guns.

41.3% There are too many guns on the streets. Police and prosecutors need help by passing some common-sense Limits on purchase and possession of guns.

When presented with these two competing statements, voters took their partisan corners.
