VI. Incident Details

Please briefly describe your travel experience:

I was refused in 2017 (see attached documents). After a Traveller Inquiry, the situation was regulated. Although it now seems that all the same previous information came back into my file since I detained/referred for secondary screening when clearing US Customs last week (November 23rd 2022). Since 2016, all charges against me were dropped (see attached). I am involved in a provincial court proceeding in which I sue the province of Quebec, since then, it seems like they disclose wrongful / damageable information to DHS (see attached documents).

VII. Acknowledgement

The information I have provided on this application is true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge and is provided in good faith. I understand that knowingly and willfully making any materially false statement, or omission of a material fact, on this application can be punished by fine or imprisonment or both (see section 1001 of Title 18 United States Code).

I understand the above information and am voluntarily submitting this information to the Department of Homeland Security.

Redress Control Number: 2257868

Dear Mr. Luigi Coretti:

Thank you for submitting your Traveler Inquiry Form and identity documentation to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (DHS TRIP). DHS' mission is to lead the unified national effort to secure the country, including U.S. border and transportation security. We take requests for redress seriously, and we understand the inconveniences that additional inspections may cause. DHS strives to process travelers in the most efficient and professional manner possible without compromising our mission to safeguard the United States, its people and its visitors.

When DHS receives a redress inquiry, we conduct a thorough review of the matter. We consult and share information with other agencies, when appropriate, to relieve you from the burden of seeking redress on an agency-by-agency basis and to address the issue that you identified in your application. We have found that about 2% of the DHS TRIP complainants actually have some connection to the Terrorist Watchlist. Complaints most often arise either because the traveler's name and personal information is similar to the name and personal information of another person in systems which contain information from Federal, state, local and foreign sources or because the traveler has been delayed in travel for reasons unrelated to such data, such as by random screening.

DHS has researched and completed our review of your case. DHS TRIP can neither confirm nor deny any information about you which may be within federal watchlists or reveal any law enforcement sensitive information. However, we have made any corrections to records that our inquiries determined were necessary, including, as appropriate, notations that may assist in avoiding incidents of misidentification.

For your general information, here is how redress helps you when traveling:

1. When traveling by air to or within the United States, DHS recommends that you provide your redress control number (located at the top of this letter) when making your reservations. Providing this information will help prevent misidentifications from occurring during security checks against government records and other information. In most online reservation systems, your redress control number may be entered at the same time you enter your full name and date of birth.
2. When entering the United States from abroad, no additional action is required. Where appropriate, as a result of the redress process, DHS employs a procedure to correct the information used to process travelers at the ports of entry that reduces the chance of misidentifications occurring.

Despite these positive efforts, we cannot ensure your travel will be delay-free. The redress process does not affect other standard screening procedures in place at airports and borders. For example, an individual may be selected for additional screening in order to resolve a walk-through metal detector alarm, because of random selection, or other reasons. While this process may sometimes be stressful, we rely on the patience, cooperation, and understanding of travelers in such cases. The aim of these security measures is to safeguard the people of the United States and visitors to this Nation.

If you have any further questions, please contact DHS TRIP via e-mail at TRIP@dhs.gov, or write to the address found in the letterhead.

Sincerely,

Deborah O. Moore
