Good afternoon,

Thank you for contacting the FBI's Public Liaison to utilize Freedom of Information / Privacy Acts (FOIPA) dispute resolution services. We appreciate your patience regarding this matter.

Regarding your below inquiry, we conducted an additional review of your request. We determined that the processing of your request complied with our standard procedures, and further action is not required. As a result, we are unable to resolve your dispute.

Even though we were unable to resolve your dispute, you may still seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services," and you should also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request.

Finally, your use of FBI dispute resolution services does not toll or suspend the ninety (90) days for filing a timely appeal with the Director, OIP, U.S. Department of Justice as we advised in our response letter dated November 19, 2021.

Respectfully,

Public Information Officer
FBI - Information Management Division

Good afternoon,

The FBI has received your request for Dispute Resolution regarding your Freedom of Information/Privacy Act (FOIPA) request. A response will be forthcoming.

Note: Dispute Resolution Services (DRS) are a separate process than filing an appeal with the Office of Information Policy (OIP), and the use of DRS does not toll the 90 day limit to file a timely appeal with OIP.

Thank you,
