Sounds good Anson. Come to the Rusk State Office Building at 208 E. 10th Street. At the front desk just say you are here to see me and someone will come down and escort you all up. Thanks.

3pm works great. I will be joined by Matthew Kopko, who leads our proxy voting practice. Let us know the best location to meet.

Thanks,

Anson

I should be available to meet at 3:00 pm or 4:00 pm this Thursday if that works for you Anson. Otherwise we can have a phone call or Teams meeting at another time. I'm cc'ing our General Counsel Whitney Blanton who will also join.

Anson,

Thanks for following up. I will not be in town on Thursday but am looping in Mike Reissig as he can speak with you regarding the proxy voting service.

Thanks,

Hi Glenn,

We are making good progress at Strive and partnered with Texas ERS on one of our latest fund launches. We appreciate your help last year with some of these intros.

I wanted to touch base on the recent proxy voting service that we launched to compete with ISS and Glass Lewis. We are working with a few other states and I wanted to update you on the progress we are making. Let me know if you have time to hop on a quick call. Alternatively, I am also going to be in Austin next Thursday, March 9th if you are around to get together in person. We are going to be there for meetings with Texas ERS and Texas Teachers.

Thanks,

Anson

Hi Glenn,

Nice meeting you last month in Austin.

At lunch with Bud Brigham, you mentioned that TX has an emerging managers fund for new firms like Strive. Are you able to provide us with a contact for that fund (I cc'd our Head of Institutional Investing, Rob Melton)? Or make a warm introduction?

We are launching our next product, The Strive 500 (it's a passive product that provides exposure to the 500 largest companies in the US), later this week. We now have a core product to complement our energy fund. Hopefully we can explore if either would be a fit.

Thanks,

Anson
