

I am deeply saddened that some members of our Geelong Grammar School community face significant challenges due to the ongoing impact of the crimes of the past.

In recent years, our School has been working to provide an authentic and trauma-informed response to survivors of sexual abuse.

Whilst we cannot undo the failures of the past, together we can acknowledge the harm and recognise the pain caused.

We remain committed to supporting and enabling a culture which fortifies against such devastating harms, and places student safeguarding, and the strengthening and enablement of student voice, at its core.

Geelong Grammar School apologises to survivors for harms suffered and respects the privacy of survivors and their families by not commenting on individual claims or settlements reached.

Rebecca Cody, Principal, Geelong Grammar School