Good morning.

We are still processing your FOIA appeal.

The appeal is still being processed by another office.

When that office completes their portion of the appeals process, your appeals package will return to my office.

At that point, when your appeals package returns to my office, I will be able to forward the appeal to AFLOA for further processing.

Thank you!

Ms. Jensen –

Could you advise as to the status of our appeal (2022-00306-A), which we filed on September 19, 2022? We have not had any response after your email below and we are therefore following up. Any information you may provide is appreciated.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.
