CHIEF ALEXANDER
Clerk of Superior Court

IN RE 2 MAY 2022 SPECIAL PURPOSE
GRAND JURY

2022-EX-000024 Fulton County, Georgia

ORDER ENTERING SPECIAL PURPOSE GRAND JURY'S FINAL REPORT INTO COURT RECORD

On 28 August 2023, the undersigned entered an Order directing that, absent objection, the Special Purpose Grand Jury's final report that sets forth its findings and recommendations to the District Attorney of Fulton County concerning its investigation into possible criminal interference in the 2020 general election in Georgia be entered into the public docket on 8 September 2023. There have been no objections lodged. Therefore, attached to this Order as Exhibit A is the final report, with only the names of the two signatories redacted. The Clerk is directed to make this Order and its attachment available to the public.

SO ORDERED this 8th day of September 2023.

Judge Robert C.I. McBurney
Superior Court of Fulton County
Atlanta Judicial Circuit

EXHIBIT A
to Order of 8 September 2023
2022-EX-000024

1 SPECIAL PURPOSE GRAND JURY REPORT

3 This Special Purpose Grand Jury (herein referred to as “the Grand Jury”) was 4 impaneled pursuant to an Order dated January 24, 2022 by Christopher S. Brasher, 5 Chief Judge of the Superior Court of Fulton County, Atlanta Judicial Circuit. The 6 Grand Jury consisted of twenty-six Fulton County residents, three of whom were 7 alternates. On any day testimony was received or deliberations were had, the number 8 of jurors present ranged between sixteen and twenty-four as availability allowed.
9 Pursuant to statute, if we had our needed quorum of sixteen jurors present, we could 10 do business with that.

11 The Grand Jury was impaneled to investigate a specific issue: the facts and 12 circumstances relating directly or indirectly to possible attempts to disrupt the lawful 13 administration of the 2020 presidential elections in the State of Georgia.

14 This Grand Jury was selected on May 2nd, 2022 and first heard evidence on 15 June 1st, 2022. We continued to hear evidence and receive information into 16 December 2022. The Grand Jury received evidence from or involving 75 witnesses 17 during the course of this investigation, the overwhelming majority of which 18 information was delivered in person under oath. The Grand Jury also received 19 information in the form of investigator testimony and various forms of digital and 20 physical media. Pursuant to Georgia law, a team of assistant district attorneys 21 provided the Grand Jury with applicable statutes and procedures. Any 22 recommendation set out herein is the sole conclusion of the Grand Jury based on 23 testimony presented, facts received, and our deliberations.

24 Following is the final report of the Special Purpose Grand Jury. We set forth 25 for the Court our recommendations on indictments and relevant statutes, including 26 the votes by the Grand Jurors. This includes the votes respective to each topic, 27 indicated in a “Yea/Nay/Abstain” format throughout. The total number of 28 Grand Jurors who placed a vote on each topic has been indicated in each section.
29 Footnotes have been added in certain places where a juror requested the opportunity 30 to clarify their vote for any reason. Each applicable statute is referenced by citation

1 number. Attached to this document as Appendix A is a complete set of Georgia 2 statutes referenced below.

3 The Grand Jury heard extensive testimony on the subject of alleged election 4 fraud from poll workers, investigators, technical experts, and State of Georgia 5 employees and officials, as well as from persons still claiming that such fraud took 6 place. We find by a unanimous vote that no widespread fraud took place in the 7 Georgia 2020 presidential election that could result in overturning that election.

21 VII.

22 With respect to the national effort to overturn the 2020 presidential election, 23 focused on efforts in Georgia, Arizona, Wisconsin, Michigan, Pennsylvania, and the 24 District of Columbia, the Grand Jury recommends that the District Attorney seek 25 indictments of the following person(s), including votes⁶ (21):

⁶ One of the dissenting jurors voting against recommending seeking indictments of former Senators Perdue and Loeffler on a RICO claim believes that their statements following the November 2020 election, while pandering to their political base, do not give rise to their being guilty of a criminal conspiracy.

1 APPENDIX A – O.C.G.A. STATUTES REFERENCED ABOVE

2 O.C.G.A. § 16-4-7: Criminal solicitation

3 (a) A person commits the offense of criminal solicitation when, with intent that 4 another person engage in conduct constituting a felony, he solicits, requests, 5 commands, importunes, or otherwise attempts to cause the other person to 6 engage in such conduct.

7 (b) A person convicted of the offense of criminal solicitation to commit a felony shall 8 be punished by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than three years. A 9 person convicted of the offense of criminal solicitation to commit a crime 10 punishable by death or by life imprisonment shall be punished by imprisonment 11 for not less than one nor more than five years.

12 (c) It is no defense to a prosecution for criminal solicitation that the person solicited 13 could not be guilty of the crime solicited.

14 (d) The provisions of subsections (a) through (c) of this Code section are cumulative 15 and shall not supersede any other penal law of this state.

16
17 O.C.G.A. § 16-4-8: Conspiracy to commit a crime

18 A person commits the offense of conspiracy to commit a crime when he together 19 with one or more persons conspires to commit any crime and any one or more of such 20 persons does any overt act to effect the object of the conspiracy. A person convicted of 21 the offense of criminal conspiracy to commit a felony shall be punished by 22 imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than one-half the maximum period of 23 time for which he could have been sentenced if he had been convicted of the crime 24 conspired to have been committed, by one-half the maximum fine to which he could 25 have been subjected if he had been convicted of such crime, or both. A person 26 convicted of the offense of criminal conspiracy to commit a misdemeanor shall be 27 punished as for a misdemeanor. A person convicted of the offense of criminal

1 conspiracy to commit a crime punishable by death or by life imprisonment shall be 2 punished by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than ten years.

23 such real property.

24 O.C.G.A. § 16-14-3: [State RICO] Prohibited Activities

25 (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, through a pattern of racketeering activity or 26 proceeds derived therefrom, to acquire or maintain, directly or indirectly, any 27 interest in or control of any enterprise, real property, or personal property of any 28 nature, including money.

- 1 (b) It shall be unlawful for any person employed by or associated with any enterprise 2 to conduct or participate in, directly or indirectly, such enterprise through a pattern 3 of racketeering activity.
- 4 (c) It shall be unlawful for any person to conspire or endeavor to violate any of the 5 provisions of subsection (a) or (b) of this Code section. A person violates this 6 subsection when:
- 7 (1) He or she together with one or more persons conspires to violate any of 8 the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) of this Code section and any one or 9 more of such persons commits any overt act to effect the object of the 10 conspiracy; or
- 11 (2) He or she endeavors to violate any of the provisions of subsection (a) or (b) 12 of this Code section and commits any overt act to effect the object of the 13 endeavor.

14 1. O.C.G.A. § 16-9-1: Forgery; classification of forgery offenses

15 (a) As used in this Code section, the term:

- 16 (1) "Bank" means incorporated banks, savings banks, banking companies, trust 17 companies, credit unions, and other corporations doing a banking business.
- 18 (2) "Check" means any instrument for the payment or transmission of money 19 payable on demand and drawn on a bank.
- 20 (3) "Writing" includes, but shall not be limited to, printing or any other method of 21 recording information, money, coins, tokens, stamps, seals, credit cards, badges, 22 trademarks, and other symbols of value, right, privilege, or identification.

23 (b) A person commits the offense of forgery in the first degree when with the intent to 24 defraud he or she knowingly makes, alters, or possesses any writing, other than a check, 25 in a fictitious name or in such manner that the writing as made or altered purports to 26 have been made by another person, at another time, with different provisions, or by 27 authority of one who did not give such authority and utters or delivers such writing.

28 (c) A person commits the offense of forgery in the second degree when with the intent to 29 defraud he or she knowingly makes, alters, or possesses any writing, other than a check, 30 in a fictitious name or in such manner that the writing as made or altered purports to

1 have been made by another person, at another time, with different provisions, or by 2 authority of one who did not give such authority.

3 (d) A person commits the offense of forgery in the third degree when with the intent to 4 defraud he or she knowingly:

5 (1) Makes, alters, possesses, utters, or delivers any check written in the amount of 6 $1,500.00 or more in a fictitious name or in such manner that the check as 7 made or altered purports to have been made by another person, at another 8 time, with different provisions, or by authority of one who did not give such 9 authority; or

10 (2) Possesses ten or more checks written without a specified amount in a fictitious 11 name or in such manner that the checks as made or altered purport to have 12 been made by another person, at another time, with different provisions, or by 13 authority of one who did not give such authority.

14 (e) A person commits the offense of forgery in the fourth degree when with the intent to 15 defraud he or she knowingly:

16 (1) Makes, alters, possesses, utters, or delivers any check written in the amount of 17 less than $1,500.00 in a fictitious name or in such manner that the check as 18 made or altered purports to have been made by another person, at another 19 time, with different provisions, or by authority of one who did not give such 20 authority; or

21 (2) Possesses less than ten checks written without a specified amount in a fictitious 22 name or in such manner that the checks as made or altered purport to have 23 been made by another person, at another time, with different provisions, or by 24 authority of one who did not give such authority.

25 2. O.C.G.A. § 16-9-93: Computer crimes defined; exclusivity of article; civil 26 remedies; criminal penalties

27 (a) Computer theft. Any person who uses a computer or computer network with 28 knowledge that such use is without authority and with the intention of:

29 (1) Taking or appropriating any property of another, whether or not with the 30 intention of depriving the owner of possession;

- 1 (2) Obtaining property by any deceitful means or artful practice; or 2 (3) Converting property to such person's use in violation of an agreement or other 3 known legal obligation to make a specified application or disposition of such 4 property
5 shall be guilty of the crime of computer theft.

6 (b) Computer Trespass. Any person who uses a computer or computer network with 7 knowledge that such use is without authority and with the intention of:

- 8 (1) Deleting or in any way removing, either temporarily or permanently, any 9 computer program or data from a computer or computer network;
10 (2) Obstructing, interrupting, or in any way interfering with the use of a computer 11 program or data; or 12 (3) Altering, damaging, or in any way causing the malfunction of a computer, 13 computer network, or computer program, regardless of how long the alteration, 14 damage, or malfunction persists
15 shall be guilty of the crime of computer trespass.

16 (c) Computer Invasion of Privacy. Any person who uses a computer or computer network 17 with the intention of examining any employment, medical, salary, credit, or any other 18 financial or personal data relating to any other person with knowledge that such 19 examination is without authority shall be guilty of the crime of computer invasion of 20 privacy.

21 (d) Computer Forgery. Any person who creates, alters, or deletes any data contained in any 22 computer or computer network, who, if such person had created, altered, or deleted a 23 tangible document or instrument would have committed forgery under Article 1 of this 24 chapter, shall be guilty of the crime of computer forgery. The absence of a tangible 25 writing directly created or altered by the offender shall not be a defense to the crime of 26 computer forgery if a creation, alteration, or deletion of data was involved in lieu of a 27 tangible document or instrument.

28 (e) Computer Password Disclosure. Any person who discloses a number, code, password, 29 or other means of access to a computer or computer network knowing that such 30 disclosure is without authority and which results in damages (including the fair market 31 value of any services used and victim expenditure) to the owner of the computer or

1 computer network in excess of $500.00 shall be guilty of the crime of computer 2 password disclosure.

3 (f) Article not Exclusive. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to preclude 4 the applicability of any other law which presently applies or may in the future apply to 5 any transaction or course of conduct which violates this article.

6 (g) Civil Relief; Damages.

7 (1) Any person whose property or person is injured by reason of a violation of any 8 provision of this article may sue therefor and recover for any damages sustained 9 and the costs of suit. Without limiting the generality of the term, "damages" 10 shall include loss of profits and victim expenditure.

11 (2) At the request of any party to an action brought pursuant to this Code section, 12 the court shall by reasonable means conduct all legal proceedings in such a way 13 as to protect the secrecy and security of any computer, computer network, 14 data, or computer program involved in order to prevent possible recurrence of 15 the same or a similar act by another person and to protect any trade secrets of 16 any party.

17 (3) The provisions of this article shall not be construed to limit any person's right to 18 pursue any additional civil remedy otherwise allowed by law.

19 (4) A civil action under this Code section must be brought within four years after 20 the violation is discovered or by exercise of reasonable diligence should have 21 been discovered. For purposes of this article, a continuing violation of any one 22 subsection of this Code section by any person constitutes a single violation by 23 such person.

24 (h) Criminal Penalties.

25 (1) Any person convicted of the crime of computer theft, computer trespass, 26 computer invasion of privacy, or computer forgery shall be fined not more than 27 $50,000.00 or imprisoned not more than 15 years, or both.

28 (2) Any person convicted of computer password disclosure shall be fined not more 29 than $5,000.00 or incarcerated for a period not to exceed one year, or both.

1 3. O.C.G.A. § 16-10-8: False official certificates or writings by officers or employees 2 of state and political subdivisions.

3 An officer or employee of the state or any political subdivision thereof 4 or other person authorized by law to make or give a certificate or 5 other writing who knowingly makes and delivers such a certificate or 6 writing containing any statement which he knows to be false shall, 7 upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not less 8 than one nor more than five years.

9 4. O.C.G.A. § 16-10-20: False statements and writings, concealment of facts, and 10 fraudulent documents in matters within jurisdiction of state or political 11 subdivisions.

12 A person who knowingly and willfully falsifies, conceals, or covers up 13 by any trick, scheme, or device a material fact; makes a false, fictitious, 14 or fraudulent statement or representation; or makes or uses any false 15 writing or document, knowing the same to contain any false, fictitious, 16 or fraudulent statement or entry, in any matter within the jurisdiction 17 of any department or agency of state government or of the 18 government of any county, city, or other political subdivision of this 19 state shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more 20 than $1,000.00 or by imprisonment for not less than one nor more 21 than five years, or both.

22
23 5. O.C.G.A. § 16-10-20.1: Filing false documents.

24 (a) As used in this Code section, the term "document" means information that is inscribed 25 on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is 26 retrievable in perceivable form and shall include, but shall not be limited to, liens, 27 encumbrances, documents of title, instruments relating to a security interest in or title 28 to real or personal property, or other records, statements, or representations of fact, 29 law, right, or opinion.

- 1 (b) Notwithstanding Code Sections 16-10-20 and 16-10-71, it shall be unlawful for any 2 person to:
- 3 (1) Knowingly file, enter, or record any document in a public record or court of this 4 state or of the United States knowing or having reason to know that such 5 document is false or contains a materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent 6 statement or representation; or
- 7 (2) Knowingly alter, conceal, cover up, or create a document and file, enter, or 8 record it in a public record or court of this state or of the United States knowing 9 or having reason to know that such document has been altered or contains a 10 materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation.
- 11 (c) Any person who violates subsection (b) of this Code section shall be guilty of a felony 12 and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment of not less than one 13 nor more than ten years, a fine not to exceed $10,000.00, or both.
- 14 (d) This Code section shall not apply to a court clerk, registrar of deeds, or any other 15 government employee who is acting in the course of his or her official duties.
- 16 6. O.C.G.A. § 16-10-70: Perjury.
- 17 (a) A person to whom a lawful oath or affirmation has been administered commits the 18 offense of perjury when, in a judicial proceeding, he knowingly and willfully makes a 19 false statement material to the issue or point in question.
- 20 (b) A person convicted of the offense of perjury shall be punished by a fine of not more 21 than $1,000.00 or by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than ten years, or 22 both. A person convicted of the offense of perjury that was a cause of another's being 23 imprisoned shall be sentenced to a term not to exceed the sentence provided for the 24 crime for which the other person was convicted. A person convicted of the offense of 25 perjury that was a cause of another's being punished by death shall be punished by life 26 imprisonment.
- 27 7. O.C.G.A. § 16-10-93: Influencing witnesses.
- 28 (a) A person who, with intent to deter a witness from testifying freely, fully, and truthfully 29 to any matter pending in any court, in any administrative proceeding, or before a grand 30 jury, communicates, directly or indirectly, to such witness any threat of injury or damage

1 to the person, property, or employment of the witness or to the person, property, or 2 employment of any relative or associate of the witness or who offers or delivers any 3 benefit, reward, or consideration to such witness or to a relative or associate of the 4 witness shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not less than 5 one nor more than five years.

6 (b)

7 (1) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to use intimidation, physical force, 8 or threats; to persuade another person by means of corruption or to attempt to 9 do so; or to engage in misleading conduct toward another person with intent to:

10 (A) Influence, delay, or prevent the testimony of any person in an official 11 proceeding;

12 (B) Cause or induce any person to:

13 (i) Withhold testimony or a record, document, or other object 14 from an official proceeding;

15 (ii) Alter, destroy, mutilate, or conceal an object with intent to 16 impair the object's integrity or availability for use in an official 17 proceeding;

18 (iii) Evade legal process summoning that person to appear as a 19 witness or to produce a record, document, or other object in an 20 official proceeding; or

21 (iv) Be absent from an official proceeding to which such person has 22 been summoned by legal process; or

23 (C) Hinder, delay, or prevent the communication to a law enforcement 24 officer, prosecuting attorney, or judge of this state of information 25 relating to the commission or possible commission of a criminal 26 offense or a violation of conditions of probation, parole, or release 27 pending judicial proceedings.

28 (2) Any person convicted of a violation of this subsection shall be guilty of a felony 29 and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment for not less 30 than two nor more than ten years or by a fine of not less than $10,000.00 nor 31 more than $20,000.00, or both.

- 1 (A) For the purposes of this Code section, the term "official proceeding" 2 means any hearing or trial conducted by a court of this state or its 3 political subdivisions, a grand jury, or an agency of the executive, 4 legislative, or judicial branches of government of this state or its 5 political subdivisions or authorities.
- 6 (B) An official proceeding need not be pending or about to be instituted 7 at the time of any offense defined in this subsection.
- 8 (C) The testimony, record, document, or other object which is prevented 9 or impeded or attempted to be prevented or impeded in an official 10 proceeding in violation of this Code section need not be admissible in 11 evidence or free of a claim of privilege.
- 12 (D) In a prosecution for an offense under this Code section, no state of 13 mind need be proved with respect to the circumstance:
- 14 (i) That the official proceeding before a judge, court, magistrate, 15 grand jury, or government agency is before a judge or court of 16 this state, a magistrate, a grand jury, or an agency of state or 17 local government; or
- 18 (ii) That the judge is a judge of this state or its political subdivisions 19 or that the law enforcement officer is an officer or employee of 20 the State of Georgia or a political subdivision or authority of the 21 state or a person authorized to act for or on behalf of the State 22 of Georgia or a political subdivision or authority of the state.
- 23 (E) A prosecution under this Code section may be brought in the county 24 in which the official proceeding, whether or not pending or about to 25 be instituted, was intended to be affected or in the county in which 26 the conduct constituting the alleged offense occurred.
- 27 (c) Any crime committed in violation of subsection (a) or (b) of this Code section shall be 28 considered a separate offense.
- 29 8. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-566: Interference with primaries and elections generally.
30 Any person who:

- 1 (1) Willfully prevents or attempts to prevent any poll officer from holding any 2 primary or election under this chapter;
 - 3 (2) Uses or threatens violence in a manner that would prevent a reasonable poll 4 officer or actually prevents a poll officer from the execution of his or her duties 5 or materially interrupts or improperly and materially interferes with the 6 execution of a poll officer's duties;
 - 7 (3) Willfully blocks or attempts to block the avenue to the door of any polling place;
 - 8 (4) Uses or threatens violence in a manner that would prevent a reasonable elector 9 from voting or actually prevents any elector from voting;
 - 10 (5) Willfully prepares or presents to any poll officer a fraudulent voter's certificate 11 not signed by the elector whose certificate it purports to be;
 - 12 (6) Knowingly deposits fraudulent ballots in the ballot box;
 - 13 (7) Knowingly registers fraudulent votes upon any voting machine; or
 - 14 (8) Willfully tampers with any electors list, voter's certificate, numbered list of 15 voters, ballot box, voting machine, direct recording electronic (DRE) equipment, 16 electronic ballot marker, or tabulating machine
- 17 shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to 18 imprisonment for not less than one nor more than ten years or to pay a fine not 19 to exceed $100,000.00, or both.

20 9. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-580: Tampering with, damaging, improper preparation of, or 21 prevention of proper operation of voting machines or electronic ballot markers 22 or tabulating machines.

23 Any person who:

- 24 (1) Unlawfully opens, tampers with, or damages any voting machine or electronic 25 ballot marker or tabulating machine to be used or being used at any primary or 26 election;
- 27 (2) Willfully prepares a voting machine or an electronic ballot marker or tabulating 28 machine for use in a primary or election in improper order for voting; or
- 29 (3) Prevents or attempts to prevent the correct operation of such electronic ballot 30 marker or tabulating machine or voting machine

1 shall be guilty of a felony.

2

3 10. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-582: Tampering with, damaging, or preventing of proper 4 operation of direct recording electronic equipment or electronic ballot marker or 5 tabulating machine or device.

6 Any person who tampers with or damages any direct recording electronic 7 (DRE) equipment or electronic ballot marker or tabulating machine or device 8 to be used or being used at or in connection with any primary or election or 9 who prevents or attempts to prevent the correct operation of any direct 10 recording electronic (DRE) equipment or electronic ballot marker or 11 tabulating machine or device shall be guilty of a felony.

12

13 11. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-597: Intentional interference with performance of election 14 duties.

15 Any person who intentionally interferes with, hinders, or delays or attempts 16 to interfere with, hinder, or delay any other person in the performance of any 17 act or duty authorized or imposed by this chapter shall be guilty of a 18 misdemeanor.

19

20 12. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-604: Criminal solicitation to commit election fraud; penalties.

21 (1) A person commits the offense of criminal solicitation to commit election fraud 22 in the first degree when, with intent that another person engage in conduct 23 constituting a felony under this article, he or she solicits, requests, commands, 24 importunes, or otherwise attempts to cause the other person to engage in such 25 conduct.

26 (2) A person commits the offense of criminal solicitation to commit election fraud 27 in the second degree when, with intent that another person engage in conduct 28 constituting a misdemeanor under this article, he or she solicits, requests, 29 commands, importunes, or otherwise attempts to cause the other person to 30 engage in such conduct.

1 (b)

2 (1) A person convicted of the offense of criminal solicitation to commit election 3 fraud in the first degree shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than 4 one nor more than three years.

5 (2) A person convicted of the offense of criminal solicitation to commit election 6 fraud in the second degree shall be punished as for a misdemeanor.

7 (c) It is no defense to a prosecution for criminal solicitation to commit election fraud that 8 the person solicited could not be guilty of the crime solicited.

9 (d) The provisions of subsections (a) through (c) of this Code section are cumulative and 10 shall not supersede any other penal law of this state.

Addendum to Special Purpose Grand Jury Final Report

The undersigned Special Purpose Grand Jury Foreperson and Deputy Foreperson hereby make this Addendum to the Special Purpose Grand Jury Final Report to clarify two matters:

1. Before its dissolution, the Special Purpose Grand Jury voted to recommend that the Special Purpose Grand Jury Final Report be published. The Special Purpose Grand Jury did not recommend a manner or time for such publication.
2. At no time were 24 or more jurors present when evidence was received. 24 jurors, including alternates, were present only at an introductory meeting at the Fulton County Courthouse on May 12, 2022.

Foreperson

Deputy Foreperson
