

I just read your message and I am sending you a hug. I know this is the right decision for you and your family. Your other family (your friends here), love you and support you in this decision. You have changed us all for the better — truly a blessing in so many ways! Thank you Celia 🤗

---