

Walk The Dog !!

But take vague notes so you remember *

Skye is saying even if the gummies have fentanyl in them the prosecutor will say I tried to put the fentanyl in the gummies so Eric would have them. Stupid I know but that's what she's thinking. We will still test them though. However, she wants to link Eric getting drugs & pills from Mexico so we need some kind of connection. Her private investigator is doing some research on the ranch/cartel place Eric would stay at. Here is what I'm thinking but you have to talk to Ronney. He would probably have to testify to this, but it's super short not a lot to it. He will need to tell Skye at the meeting next week.

Upon information and belief: (Just like they say)
 A year prior to Eric's death, Ronney was over watching football one Sunday and Eric and Ronney were chatting about Eric's Mexico trips. Eric told Ronney he gets Pain Pills & Fentanyl from Mexico from the workers at the ranch. Not to tell me because I would get mad because I always said he just gets high every night and won't help take care of the kids (there are pictures in my phone of Eric passed out on the floor or in the chair. Ronney should have texts from Eric talking about getting high as well). Eric told Ronney he keeps them in an allergy pill bottle in his work truck so I wouldn't find them. Ronney never told me about the conversation. Eric finally told me and asked if Carmen could get him some. Eric never wanted anyone to know he had an issue especially get caught, he always wanted Kouri to go down for him. When they traveled, Eric would put his drugs in Kouri's bag at the 21/lines right before they boarded. That way if they were caught, Kouri got in trouble not him. Once they got to wherever they were going, Eric would pull the drugs out of her bag and it would cause a huge fight. She was pissed he would risk her going to jail for his drug use. He just would laugh about it. Eric couldn't run his image that he had drug issues so he would do whatever he had to. Kouri has never done any type of pills, didn't like them. Rarely would she consume THC only if Eric begged her bc it was a special occasion.

Reword this however he needs to, to make the point just include it all The connection has to be made with Mexico and drugs. Ronney will have the messages to prove Eric confided in him about getting high. It can be short and to the point but has to be done. UPON information and belief LOL. They never found pain pills or fentanyl in my house because he hid it in an allergy bottle in work truck. And Cody emptied out work truck within a week. So they were never found.

When you talk to Ronny about this, meet up with him in person. I worry sometimes your house and phone are bugged. Maybe drive down to SL and meet him after work without bri. Skye has to make the connection between Eric and Mexico because that makes the most sense in her mind. If it's Ronny's information and belief about the conversation over football she can use that as a connection. Tell Ronny don't overanalyze it. It was a quick 2 min. conversation lol. Tell him I need him to do this. bring me home and then we will get those damn bitches!

Also, please text Lotto. or call. Tell him do not text me anything about us doing things together ever! like church, skiing, trips! Nothing that puts us together, it doesn't look good.

We're so close to the end, let's push through. Have the conversation with Ronny before he meets with Skye. Then tell him to tell Skye at the meeting about the conversation. Hang in there, we're almost here. Love you to the moon. ♡

• Take vague notes of all this so you remember before you walk the dog.

I saw a commercial yesterday Utah mortgage relief google them please. Its for people behind on their mortgage. Can you see if they can help at all on Marissas house please?

We have to get hers yours, and chelseas taken care of ASAP? Try to go to that place in Kamas what about asking lotto to do a loan solely in his name and not have you on there.

I know he can do a home equity line of credit on his house in hideout. Not sure if he would but I know he has like a million in equity. Maybe he just doesnt know about a HELOC (home equity). If he wants to help me, taking care of these loans is most important. I dont give a shit about the hotels.

Remember I told you, one way to get at Katie, is going through my phone and find a picture of her girls even with the boys. Print 15 copies and send them out anonymously to different media companies. Obviously dont email the pictures so its not traceable. She would be LIVID if it got out to the public. You would just have to do it sneakily and be careful. She would try and trace it back to you. If not, no worries!

SKye is having the my girls do the first interview with good Morning America. Please tell Chelsea to bring up that he hasn't been to church in the 13 yrs she has known him. And Eric would brag to her about how much he drank and did pills in high school. Tell Kelsey to say "Eric always wanted Kouri to go down for him" For example he would put drugs in her suitcase when we would travel together so if anyone got caught it was Kouri. He would put it in her bag right before they left the house so Kouri didn't know. Then when we would land wherever, Eric would take them out of her bag and Keri would be pissed and they would argue about it. Tell Kelsey to say how Eric didn't care and would just laugh about it and say, "Well I can't get in trouble." as if it was okay that I got in trouble. Have Selma talk about Eric in Spain not being able to drink so he was looking for drugs the entire time. And explain the drink the waitress gave him. And how I called his doctor and went to the pharmacy immediately. Have all talk about how the sisters "have always" been jealous of me because anything they could do, Kari could do better. Being a mom, College, stay at home wife until she built a million dollar company. A nice house, car, everything she had, they wanted. This comes down to jealousy, money, and Eric's partying that they don't want to acknowledge and sadly an accidental overdose.

Lastly, don't forget to work on the gun receipts. We want to file charges and let the prosecutor not do anything about it, to use in our defense.

Will you buy a box of Crest White Strips, open them up, put in an envelope and have Skye give them to me. You can tell her what's in the envelope, I'm sure she won't care. I'll make sure they can't be found in my cell. My teeth are yellow from so much coffee and tea all day. I love you, I love you, I love you! Hang in there, we're getting there, slowly. You're the best mom in the whole world! I'm so lucky to have you!
