

IN THE MISSOURI COURT OF APPEALS
WESTERN DISTRICT

STATE OF MISSOURI, RESPONDENT,

vs.

WD85232

ERIC J DEVALKENAERE, APPELLANT.

ORDER

NOW ON THIS DAY the Court considers Appellant's motion to reinstate the appeal bond, and, being fully advised in the premises, said motion is denied.

Section 547.330, RSMo 2016, provides:

In all cases where the conviction of a defendant is affirmed on appeal . . . and the defendant is to be imprisoned in any jail or by the department of corrections, the court affirming . . . the appeal shall direct the sentence pronounced to be executed, and for this purpose the court shall order the marshal of the court to arrest the convict, and deliver him to the proper official. In its discretion the court may order the marshal to arrest the convict prior to the date the opinion of the court affirming the judgment in the cause is made public.
