Nine videos were analyzed. Each of the video's audio was in the form of rap music. Statements and threats within the videos included racial statements about specific groups of people and killing them, bombing churches associated with a specific race, killing kids, raping children, bringing his gun to school and killing people of a specific ethnic group, shooting up his school because he was bullied, details of a plan about committing a school shooting, killing his grandmother, bombing a specific public event, killing the president, and bombing the senate.

On October 31, 2023, the FBI executed a search warrant at the residence of 2611 SW 16th St, Apartment 26. There were no weapons or explosives located inside the residence. While the search warrant was being executed, full time TFO Kris Moffit and TFO Eli Hobbs contacted Reese Sullivan at his place of work in Lowell, AR. Sullivan agreed to speak with them inside a vehicle and was advised he was free to leave at any time and was not under arrest.

In summary, Sullivan identified the account was his he described it was his character or persona he uses to make the rap videos. He created the videos inside his residence and posted them on Sullivan started writing/singing these types of songs when he was 17 years old. He stated his rap songs are meant to be funny and he does not believe the statements he makes in his songs. Sullivan said he does not hate the groups identified in the songs, he has not sexually abused children, he has no intent of committing a shooting at his school, a bombing, or killing the president, and he does not possess any firearms, explosives, or components.

Sullivan understood how the statements could alarm someone. He has not told his employer or his parents that he writes and sings these songs.

Sullivan provided historical information about his family and school, and there were no disclosures of abuse or trauma.

Based on the foregoing, the State joins me in requesting that a Warrant of Arrest be issued for Reese Sullivan for committing the offense of Terroristic Threatening in the First Degree (5-13-301) (Class D Felony).

I swear that the allegations contained herein are the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth.
