

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF
COLUMBIA CRIMINAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES
V.

Lorenzo, aka "Lorinzo" Thompson – LU#28- Title 16 November 10, 2023

SUPPLEMENTAL GERSTEIN

On Monday, November 6, 2023, the defendant was observed on Instagram Live appearing to be bragging about the murder of 14-year-old N.E. that occurred less than three days prior. A Homicide Detective recorded this IG Live broadcast. Your affiant reviewed the recording of this Instagram Live broadcast and has confirmed that the individual depicted in the broadcast was in fact the defendant, Lorenzo (Lorinzo) Thompson, having seen him recently in person during questioning. In this broadcast, your affiant believes that the defendant references the murder of a "Y.B." and says words to the effect of that the defendant had "Got him." (referring to Y.B.). The defendant shows no remorse during this broadcast and it appears that he is celebrating with others as he demonstrates someone turning around to run and then falling after being shot. Friday is also referenced on the broadcast. The decedent was shot and killed last Friday evening (pronounced after midnight). Your affiant has confirmed through family members that 14-year-old N.E.'s nickname was in fact "Y.B."

On November 9th 2023, at approximately 1727 hours, MPD Third District Crime Suppression Officers W. Whitfield, C. Williams and M. VanDuyse were in full uniform utilizing call-sign 3CST9 operating marked cruiser "371". Officers were performing routine patrol when they noticed the defendant, Lorenzo Thompson, in the front courtyard area of [REDACTED] (LeDroit Park Housing Projects).

Officers had learned earlier that the defendant had an active arrest warrant for a murder charge signed by Judge Beck (2023CRWSLD004107). Officers Whitfield, Williams and VanDuyse approached the defendant and immediately apprehended him after the defendant initially resisted arrest. Officer Whitfield and Williams both confirmed again over 3D Main Air and through WALES/NCIC that the defendant indeed had an active warrant. The defendant was positively identified as 17-year-old Lorenzo Thompson (B/M DOB: 12/10/2005) through numerous previous encounters as well through law enforcement resources. The defendant was placed under arrest and transported to the Homicide Branch where he invoked his Miranda rights. The defendant did indicate during initial questioning that his first name is spelled "Lorinzo," and not "Lorenzo." Your affiant believes that his name is spelled "Lorinzo" on the documents associated with the occupants of the apartment that was searched.

Officer Whitfield is the same officer who assisted in the identification of the defendant from the BOLO in the original arrest warrant related to the homicide. Pertaining to the identification, Officer Whitfield is an African American officer who is of the same race as the defendant.

On November 9, 2023, a search warrant, signed by Judge Beck (2023CSWSLD004106), was executed inside the apartment where the defendant was believed to be living at [REDACTED] NW, [REDACTED], Washington D.C. 20009. A 9mm magazine was found inside a backpack that was inside of a what is believed to be the defendant's bedroom. A prescription bottle with the defendant's name was found in the same bedroom. The first name was spelled "Lorinzo" on this bottle. The weapon used in the homicide of 14-year-old N.E. appears to be a 9mm semi-automatic firearm that would require a 9mm magazine.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption.

SWORN TO ON NOVEMBER 10, 2023.
