

A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF

Rosalynn Smith Carter

1927-2023

Tuesday, November 28, 2023

Glenn Memorial Church at Emory University
Atlanta, Georgia

“Do what you can to show you care about others, and you will make our world a better place.”

- Rosalynn Smith Carter

Cambodian Refugee Camp, November 9, 1979

Presidential Medal of Freedom, August 9, 1999

“I would like for people to think that I took advantage of my opportunities and did the best I could.”

– Rosalynn Smith Carter

Testifying Before Congress on Mental Health, February 7, 1979

“I want people to know what I know—that today because of research and our knowledge of the brain, mental illnesses can be diagnosed and treated effectively, and the majority of those with these conditions can recover and lead fulfilling lives ...going to school, working, raising a family, and being productive citizens in their communities.”

– Rosalynn Smith Carter

The Lord’s Prayer

Said by all

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Let There Be Peace on Earth

Sy Miller and Jill Jackson

Let there be peace on earth and let it be - gin with me.

Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be. With God as our Fa - ther, broth - ers all are we; Let me walk with my broth - er in per - fect har - mo - ny. Let peace be - gin with me, let this be the mo - ment now. With ev - 'ry step I take, let this be my sol - emn vow: To take each mo - ment and live each mo - ment in peace e - ter - nal - ly. Let there be peace on earth and let it be - gin with me. let it be - gin with me.
