INDICTMENT

December 2023 Term – at Richmond

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

A. International Armed Conflict Between Russia and Ukraine

1. Starting on or about February 24, 2022, the Russian Federation (Russia) launched a full-scale military invasion of Ukraine, a country located in Eastern Europe that shared a border with Russia to its east and northeast. Continuing from that date through at least the date of this Indictment, an international armed conflict existed between Russia and Ukraine. During all times relevant to this Indictment, the United States was not engaged in an armed conflict with Russia.

2. Russian Armed Forces and their proxies, including military units from the so-called Donetsk People's Republic (DPR), sought to gain control of portions of Ukraine. The DPR was an internationally unrecognized republic located in Donetsk Oblast, a province in eastern Ukraine. Russia and its proxies controlled DPR territory.

3. From the invasion on or about February 24, 2022, through at least the date of this Indictment, the Ukrainian government, its Armed Forces, and affiliated armed groups fought to defend Ukraine's territory.

4. By April 2, 2022, and lasting through at least on or about April 12, 2022, Russian Armed Forces and their proxies, including military units from the DPR, exercised control and authority over the area encompassing Mylove, a small village located in Kherson Oblast in southern Ukraine.

B. The Defendants and the Victim

5. Defendants Suren Seiranovich MKRTCHYAN, Dmitry BUDNIK, VALERII LAST NAME UNKNOWN (LNU), and NAZAR LNU were foreign nationals. MKRTCHYAN and BUDNIK were commanding officers of the Russian Armed Forces and/or DPR military units. VALERII LNU and NAZAR LNU were lower-ranking members of the Russian Armed Forces and/or DPR military units. MKRTCHYAN, BUDNIK, VALERII LNU, and NAZAR LNU were fighting on behalf of Russia in the international armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine.

6. The victim (V-1) was a national of the United States who, beginning in or around 2021, lived in the village of Mylove. As of April 2, 2022, V-1 was still living in Mylove. V-1 did not fight or otherwise participate in the international armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine. V-1 was a protected person under the Geneva Convention Relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War of 12 August 1949.

C. The Defendants' Abduction of the Victim

7. On or about April 2, 2022, MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators, both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, abducted V-1 from his home in Mylove.

8. During the abduction, MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators threw V-1 face down to the ground while he was naked, tied his hands behind his back, pointed a gun at his head, and beat him with their feet, their fists, and the stocks of their guns.

9. After allowing V-1 to get dressed, MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators beat him again and then transported him forcibly against his will to buildings that the Russian Armed Forces and/or DPR military units were using as an improvised military compound in Mylove.

D. The Defendants' Beatings and Interrogations of the Victim

10. VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators took V-1 to a building that they used as a jail. V-1's hands were still restrained behind his back when he was thrown into a closet being used as a jail cell. A co-conspirator used his fists, knees, and gun stock to beat V-1 severely on his legs, back, stomach, and head. V-1 remained in restraints during this beating.

11. Later, on or about April 2, 2022, V-1 was taken to a room in another building, where soldiers from the Russian Armed Forces and/or DPR military units interrogated him. MKRTCHYAN and BUDNIK led and participated in at least two interrogation sessions in which MKRTCHYAN, BUDNIK, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators committed acts specifically intended to inflict severe and serious physical and mental pain and suffering upon V-1.

12. During an interrogation, MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators stripped off V-1's clothes and photographed him.

13. After V-1 dressed, MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators continued to interrogate, threatened to kill, and beat V-1. MKRTCHYAN, VALERII

LNU, NAZAR LNU, and other co-conspirators pointed guns at V-1's head, knees, and feet. A co-conspirator held a knife to V-1's throat. MKRTCHYAN, VALERII LNU, and NAZAR LNU beat V-1. MKRTCHYAN hit V-1 in the back of his head with a gun, threatened to shoot him, and punched him in his chest and stomach.

14. BUDNIK came in and out of the room during V-1's beatings and interrogations and questioned V-1.

15. During one interrogation session, a co-conspirator threatened to sexually assault V-1 and touched him in a sexual manner, including by kissing him on the cheek and rubbing his ear.

16. When V-1's answers did not satisfy the defendants, BUDNIK and other co-conspirators threatened V-1 with death and asked for his last words.

17. Shortly after BUDNIK threatened V-1 with death, NAZAR LNU and other co-conspirators conducted a mock execution of V-1. Specifically, NAZAR LNU and other co-conspirators took V-1 outside, forced V-1 to the ground, put a gun to the back of V-1's head, then moved the position of the gun and pulled the trigger, causing the bullet to go past V-1's head and causing V-1 to believe he was about to die.

18. After the mock execution, MKRTCHYAN and other co-conspirators interrogated V-1 further about who he was and asked if he was lying. NAZAR LNU and other co-conspirators beat V-1 more. A co-conspirator, through an interpreter, told V-1 that V-1 was going to sleep. MKRTCHYAN then said goodnight, causing V-1 to believe he was about to be killed. The co-conspirators, however, took V-1 back to the closet being used as a jail cell.

19. MKRTCHYAN and other co-conspirators continued to detain V-1 until on or about April 12, 2022. V-1 was forced to perform manual labor, such as digging trenches, on behalf of the Russian Armed Forces and/or DPR military units.
