Re: Glossip, et al v. Gross, et al, W.D. Okla. CIV-14-665-F

Dear Mr. Joseph:

In response to your letter received today at 02:24 p.m., we fully agree that what efforts have been made to locate and produce pentobarbital for upcoming executions is a critical part of the discovery process in the above case. In keeping with that, we ask that you provide us the detail of efforts you have made to locate sources for pentobarbital for the executions of Mr. Glossip, Mr. Cole, and Mr. Grant. At this juncture you need not provide the names, addresses, and phone numbers of the pharmacies you have contacted, but we do require the number of pharmacies contacted, the dates they were contacted, and who contacted them. Please provide this by 6:00 p.m. today.

Also find below the names and phone numbers of the Oklahoma pharmacies referenced in declarations attached to Plaintiff Fairchild's' Response to Defendant Patton's Motion for Summary Judgment:

Can you assure us you will immediately seek assistance from these pharmacies to acquire pentobarbital? Can you also assure us that you will seek a reprieve of the upcoming executions, particularly Mr. Glossip's execution which is scheduled for tomorrow, to allow sufficient time for Oklahoma to enter an
