Dear Mr. Jordan:

I received your letter dated December 5, 2023.

Your letter requests information related to an ongoing prosecution of violations of Georgia law. In response, I will restate what I stated in my previous correspondence: Your request violates well-established principles of federalism and separation of powers and is a blatant (and admitted) attempt to interfere with and ultimately stop the State of Georgia's prosecution of a true bill of indictment, in which the indicting grand jury found probable cause that the defendants committed felony violations of Georgia law.

You cannot – and will not – be provided access to any non-public information about this or any other matter being investigated or prosecuted by this office.

I have attached my two previous letters to you for your continued review.

Yours in Service,

Fani T. Willis
Fulton County District Attorney
