CRIME malevolent and sinister has evidently be- en perpetrated against a defenseless woman. The details of the crime are too horrifying to be printed in this paper. The victim was found in a room on the second floor of a building in the city. The body was perfectly preserved, but the clothing was torn and blood-stained. The murder weapon was a knife, and the victim had been stabbed several times. The police are searching for the perpetrator of this cruel act.

A murder of this nature is a great shock to the community. It is a tragedy that such a crime should take place in this peaceful town. The police are doing everything possible to find the culprit. It is hoped that the public will assist in this search by providing any information that might be helpful.

IN A CARRIAGE COVER.

One of the most unusual features of the crime is the fact that the body was found in a carriage cover. This is a common hansom cab used in the city. The cover was found on the street, and it is believed that the murderer used it to conceal the body.

The police are examining the cover in detail, and they hope to be able to find evidence that will lead them to the perpetrator of this heinous deed.

In conclusion, the community is shocked and saddened by this tragic event. It is a reminder of the need for increased vigilance and a heightened sense of community. The police are working tirelessly to bring the perpetrators of this crime to justice.

Posession of Police Which Seem to Show a Fearful Murder Has Been Committed.

The body of a woman was discovered yesterday morning, with no fewer than 15 limbs missing. The body was found on the street, near the bridge, and it is believed that the murder was committed by a man who was seen near the spot at the time of the murder.

The police are now investigating the case, and it is believed that the man who committed the murder will be found soon. The body was found in a carriage, and it is believed that the murderer may have been driving in it at the time of the murder.

A careful examination was made of the body, and it was found that the murderer had cut off the head, hands, and feet of the woman and had then thrown them into the river. The police are now searching for the man who committed the murder, and it is believed that he will be found soon.
They were playing about the noise and excitement which forms part of Seaview avenue, one of them saw some child play with the waves on the side.

The noise was made by James Jackson. He was standing at the time about 125 feet from the north end of the bridge. Like his curiosity was aroused and he went poking around the bridge with a stick.

He remarked to his companions that it was supposed to be the work of an expert. As he pulled out of the clothes and a horrible stench emanated from his clothes and his companions.

He hurried off to find a man. They went to the second house north of the bridge and there found Mr. Calhoun. After the boys had told of the gruesome discovery Mr. Calhoun sent young Jackson out to find a nurse. It was not far and they hurried off to the gate with the assistance of Mr. Calhoun the body was washed out and it was found to contain the severed limbs.

This was done by the officer and then the men were searched. By this time several persons were at the scene. In a short time all the men were searched and the body was turned over.

A GHOSTLY FIND.

A small boy was pressed into service and was brought down from the bridge by a rope to pick up the bundle. When put his hands on it he could not raise it.

After feeling around a little, he discovered that the bundle was attached to a rope. A knife was used to cut off the rope and the body was removed. It was a human body and the features were clearly visible. The bundle was then turned over.

By this time the discovery had been made that the body was that of a young woman. The body was washed clean and her hair and clothing were removed. The body was then turned over.

This cut was made from a flashlight photograph taken at the morgue by the police photographer.
