Good afternoon, Ms. Long.

Apologies for the slow response. I had trouble downloading some files related to this case and it delayed my ability to review the appeal.

This appeal is the 506th oldest of 553 appeals currently open in our office and, generally, we try to process appeals on a first-in/first-out basis. That said, this particular appeal part of a group that we're aiming to complete within the next six months. So I'll offer a tentative final response date of August 31.

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Respectfully,
Jonathan
