Re: Violation of City Ordinance #302-90, Library

Dear Ms. Cooper:

As of February 26, 1990, Ordinance No. 302-90 was passed to make it a misdemeanor to neglect to return library books/videos. According to records at the Navasota Public Library, you have some overdue material(s). Enclosed is a copy of your membership card and the second and final notice mailed to you from the Navasota Public Library.

You have five (5) days from the date of this letter to return the overdue material(s) and pay the late fine, or pay for the overdue material(s) if they are lost and pay the late fine to the library. If this matter is not cleared on or before May 8, 2023, a warrant will be issued for your arrest and you will be paying a Warrant Fee of $50.00, Summons Fee of $35.00, a fine assessed of $266.00 plus return the overdue material(s) and pay the Late Fines of $ 2.00 or pay the fine of $266.00, Warrant Fee of $50.00, Summons Fee of $35.00, Replacement Fee of $ 60.00 and Late Fines of $ 2.00. If the defendant is a minor, charges will be filed on the Parent or Guardian.

$62.00

It would be to your advantage to return the overdue material(s) and pay the late fine, or pay for the overdue material(s) if they are lost and pay the late fine to the library. Warning: Your failing to respond will result in a WARRANT BEING ISSUED FOR YOUR ARREST ($50.00 warrant fee plus additional fees), Denial of the renewal or issuance of your driver's license (you must pay a $30.00 DPS Fee), & Referral to a collections vendor (will result in an additional collection fee of 30% of total fine). TELEPHONE CALL DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN APPEARANCE AND WILL NOT PREVENT THE ISSUANCE OF A WARRANT. Your cooperation in handling this matter will be appreciated.

This notice is a courtesy and not required by law.

Sincerely,
