Suspension of Proposition Bets on College Athletes

The Louisiana Gaming Control Board is issuing this bulletin to inform Louisiana licensed sports betting operations that proposition bets on an individual athlete's performance or statistics participating in a college sporting event will be suspended from the Official Sports Betting Catalog.

Any wager based on the following is NOT approved and is NOT permitted:

- Any proposition or "prop" bet on an individual athlete's performance or statistics participating in a college sporting event. Only proposition bets based on full team statistical results are permitted.

This bulletin's directive is effective at 8:00 a.m., August 1, 2024. All reasonable efforts shall be made to comply. Sports Betting Operators may honor any outstanding bets. While the Division understands that identifying players included in this notification may present challenges, Sports Betting Operators shall use their best efforts to comply with the intent of this notification.

Signed this 1st day of April, 2024.

Sincerely,

LOUISIANA GAMING CONTROL BOARD
