Susan R. Necheles, a partner at the law firm NechelesLaw, LLP, who represents President Donald J. Trump in the above-captioned matter, states that, after exercising due diligence and making reasonable inquiries to ascertain the existence of material and information subject to discovery, the Defendant has disclosed and made available to the People all known material and information subject to reciprocal discovery under C.P.L. § 245.20(4).

Since serving and filing a Certificate of Compliance on December 4, 2023, the defense has provided additional material and information to the People pursuant to C.P.L. §§ 245.20(4) and 245.60.

The following index identifies the additional material and information provided to the People in compliance with C.P.L. § 245.50(2).

Index of Material and Information Provided to the People

- Identification of persons that President Trump may call as witnesses at trial (C.P.L. § 245.20(4))—provided to the People on December 4, 2023.
- Further disclosures relating to anticipated witnesses at trial (C.P.L. §§ 245.20(4) and 245.60)—provided to the People on January 22 and 24, 2024.
- Disclosure of “promises, rewards and inducements” made to witnesses (C.P.L. §§ 245.20(4) and 245.60)—provided to the People on January 24, 2024.
