Re: Bodyfelt Mount LLP/Deanna Wray

To Whom it May Concern:

I represent Bodyfelt Mount LLP. The firm has recently learned information from a former firm employee, which, if true, necessitates this complaint.

According to the former firm employee, former firm lawyer Deanna Wray, acting without the knowledge or participation of any other lawyer at the firm, participated in a plan to conceal a key witness on whom the prosecution was seeking to serve a subpoena in 2015 as part of a sodomy and sexual abuse case then pending against Terry Bean.

Sincerely yours,

HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP

Peter R. Jarvis
