Incident Description

The operator discovered a corrosion leak from a free water knockout at the Raccoon Point Facility at 16:00 on 10/8/18. The operator immediately rerouted production to a different vessel at the site, and operator personnel contacted FDEP staff and began site clean-up with a vacuum truck. The leak resulted in the discharge of approximately 48 barrels of produced fluids (a mixture of oil and water). The fluids stayed within a bermed area designed as secondary containment for the process vessel, and 40 barrels of fluid have been recovered thus far. Moreover, the company promptly notified FDEP, and FDEP has been at the site in a supervisory role.
