Probable Cause

The undersigned certifies and swears that there is probable cause to believe the above -named defendant, who was positively identified by FL DL on the 21st day of August, 2023, at approximately 5:20 [] A.M. [x] P.M. at 95 Cordova St within St. Johns County, violated the law and did then and there:

Report Date / Time 8/21/2023 05:34 PM	Report Number SAPDCHG0003626M	Case Number/Cad Number SAPD23OFF001991 / SJSO23CAD206898	Reporting Officer Name J CORREA

Did commit such act as is of a nature to corrupt the public morals, or outrage the sense of public decency, or affected the peace and quiet of persons who may witness them, or engaged in such conduct as to constitute a breach of the peace or disorderly conduct, contrary to F.S. 877.03.

I know this to be true based on my observations. I arrived on scene for the report of a male causing a scene at Casa Monica, standing outside, stripping his clothes off and yelling at customers. Upon arrival, I observed the defendant, wearing nothing but his underwear, standing on the sidewalk holding a speaker blasting music and yelling. I attempted to talk to him but he walked away, walking around the Lighter Museum for a moment, before returning back to the Casa Monica. Upon arrival back at the Casa Monica, I observed the defendant yell several curse words out loud, in an intimidating manner towards guests. I then spoke to management at Casa Monica and they advised me the subject was causing several of their customers to be scared for their safety, and the complainant advised me she was scared the subject was going to get aggressive with her. She told me that there was a definite breach of peace created inside and outside the business, as customers were unable to enter or exit due to fear of the defendant.

On 8/21/23 I responded to the area of 95 Cordova in reference to a suspicious male, who was causing a disturbance. While en route I was advised by dispatch that the subject had previously been trespassed from the business, and was outside stripping down to his underwear, blasting music from a speaker.

Upon my arrival, I made contact with the suspect, who was wearing nothing but his boxers, holding a speaker playing music. I asked him what he was doing, and he just began yelling and was not making any sense. The subject kept rambling, and walked away, toward the Lightner Museum. I observed the subject then walk into the Lightner property and get into the fountain out front. Due to their being a sign about not getting in the fountain, the decision was made to trespass the suspect from the property. I entered the courtyard area of the Lightner to make contact with the subject again, and found him laying on top of a chained off tombstone. I advised him that he was being trespassed from 75 King Street, and he needed to leave, which he did.

At this time, I observed the subject walk back toward the Casa Monica, stopping at the corner and yelling curse words about how the turpentine in the paint was going to kill him. He continued on, and stood in front of the business, again yelling out curse words and random things.

I made contact with the security supervisor for the Casa Monica, Amy Viccari. Ms. Viccari advised me that the subject was causing a scene, and causing her customers to feel extremely uncomfortable. She advised me that she believes the peace of the business had been breached by the subject being out front, because customers, as well as herself, were scared that the subject may do something hostile or aggressive. She also told me that she observed several customers move from their patio tables to tables inside due to the subject causing a disturbance outside.

At this time, I placed the suspect under arrest for Disturbing the Peace, and transported him to the jail without incident. While en route to the jail, the suspect told me that it was his goal to cause a disturbance in front of the business, because they trespassed him from there and did not want his money. He stated that since he's being arrested for causing a disturbance, he must have succeeded. He and his belongings were turned over to the jail. No further patrol functions at this time. My body worn camera was active for the duration of this call.
