ORDER

This Court's April 9, 2024 Opinion stayed the enforcement of A.R.S. § 13-3603 for fourteen calendar days from the filing date of the Opinion "to permit the parties, on remand, to determine whether to pursue remaining issues raised in the trial court and, if so to request stay relief at the trial court's discretion."

On April 30, 2024, Arizona Attorney General Kristin K. Mayes filed "Attorney General's Motion to Stay Issuance of Mandate," requesting this Court to stay issuance of its mandate in this case for 90 days to permit the Attorney General time to potentially file a petition for a writ of certiorari in the United States Supreme Court.

On April 24, 2024, the Arizona House of Representatives voted to repeal the statute at issue in this case, A.R.S. § 13-3603. The Senate followed on May 1, 2024.

On May 1, 2024, Planned Parenthood Arizona, Inc. filed a "Motion to Stay Issuance of Mandate," requesting a stay of this Court's mandate in this case until the repeal legislation takes effect, which will occur 91 days after the date of the Legislature's adjournment. On May 2, 2024, Governor Hobbs signed the legislation repealing A.R.S. § 13-3603.

On May 2, 2024, Attorney General Mayes filed a "Joinder in Planned Parenthood Arizona, Inc.'s Motion to Stay Issuance of Mandate."

Also on May 2, 2024, Pima County Attorney Laura Conover filed a "Joinder in Planned Parenthood Arizona Inc.'s Motion to Stay Issuance of Mandate."

On May 7, 2024, Intervenors Hazelrigg and McGrane filed a "Combined Response to Respondents' Motions to Stay Issuance of Mandate," opposing the requests to stay the mandate.

On May 9, 2024, Planned Parenthood Arizona, Inc., joined by Pima County Attorney Laura Conover, filed a "Reply in Support of Motion to Stay Issuance of Mandate."
