Dear Ranking Members Comer and Jordan:

I write in response to your letter of October 14, 2022, in which you stated:

The fact that NARA transmitted to DOJ a referral that launched a criminal investigation of the former president the same day the Democrat Chairwoman of the Committee inquired whether the agency had been in contact with DOJ raises serious concerns about whether NARA made the referral after pressure from Committee Democrats.

There was, in fact, no connection between these two actions. NARA received the 15 boxes from President Trump on January 18, 2022, and then discovered that they contained classified national security information. Shortly after the discovery, NARA consulted with its Office of Inspector General (OIG), which operates independently of NARA. As DOJ has disclosed publicly in court filings, NARA's OIG subsequently referred the matter to DOJ on February 9, 2022.

Wholly separate and distinct from the above described activities, on February 7, 2022, the Washington Post published an article entitled National Archives had to retrieve Trump White House records from Mar-a-Lago. NARA immediately began to receive numerous queries about this article, including from the staff of the House Committee on Oversight and Reform, who informed our staff that Chairwoman Maloney would be sending a letter. Subsequently, on February 9, 2022, the Chairwoman sent the letter to Archivist of the United States David S. Ferriero that is referenced in your letter. The letter did not copy the NARA OIG.

The fact that NARA's OIG sent its referral to DOJ on the same day that Chairwoman Maloney sent her letter to the Archivist is entirely coincidental. At no time and under no circumstances were NARA officials pressured or influenced by Committee Democrats or anyone else. As I emphasized in my October 7, 2022, letter to Ranking Member Comer, NARA has at all times acted professionally and without regard to any political or partisan influence with respect to this matter. Our actions were for the simple purpose of carrying out our core mission of ensuring that NARA has all Presidential records of former Presidents in our custody and control, as required by the Presidential Records Act, and our responsibilities regarding classified national security information.

You have also expressed your concern "about NARA's continued refusal to provide information about its role in the raid on the former president's home." Both I and NARA's Inspector General have already informed Ranking Member Comer that NARA played absolutely no role in, and had no prior knowledge of, the search of President Trump's Mar-a-Lago residence.

We have also explained that DOJ has requested that NARA not share or otherwise disclose to others information related to NARA's recovery of the 15 boxes at this time in order to protect the integrity of DOJ's ongoing work. I have given this same message to Chairwoman Maloney. For this reason, we continue to recommend that you consult directly with DOJ about this issue.

Sincerely,

Debra Steidel Wall

Dear Madam Chairwoman:

I write in response to your letter of February 9, 2022, in which you asked a number of questions relating to “the 15 boxes of presidential records that the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) recently recovered from former President Trump’s Mar-a-Lago residence.” Please see our responses to each of your questions:

1. Did NARA ask the representatives of former President Trump about missing records prior to the 15 boxes being identified? If so, what information was provided in response?

Answer: NARA had ongoing communications with the representatives of former President Trump throughout 2021, which resulted in the transfer of 15 boxes to NARA in January 2022.

2. Has NARA conducted an inventory of the contents of the boxes recovered from Mar-a-Lago?

Answer: NARA is in the process of inventorying the contents of the boxes.

3. Please provide a detailed description of the contents of the recovered boxes, including any inventory prepared by NARA of the contents of the boxes. If an inventory has not yet been completed, please provide an estimate of when such an inventory will be completed.

Answer: NARA staff are in the process of inventorying the contents of the boxes, which we expect to complete by February 25. Because the records in the boxes are subject to the Presidential Records Act (PRA), any request for information regarding the content of the records will need to be made in accordance with section 2205(2)(C) of the PRA.

DAVID S. FERRIERO › T: 202.357.5900 › F: 202.357.5901 › david.ferriero@nara.gov

National Archives and Records Administration › 700 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW › Washington, DC 20408 › www.archives.gov

4. Are the contents of the boxes of records recovered by NARA undergoing a review to determine if they contain classified information? If so, who is conducting that review and has any classified information been found?

Answer: NARA has identified items marked as classified national security information within the boxes.

5. Is NARA aware of any additional presidential records from the Trump Administration that may be missing or not yet in NARA's possession?

Answer: NARA has identified certain social media records that were not captured and preserved by the Trump Administration. NARA has also learned that some White House staff conducted official business using non-official electronic messaging accounts that were not copied or forwarded into their official electronic messaging accounts, as required by section 2209 of the PRA. NARA has already obtained or is in the process of obtaining some of those records.

6. What efforts has NARA taken, and is NARA taking, to ensure that any additional records that have not been turned over to NARA are not lost or destroyed?

Answer: NARA has asked the representatives of former President Trump to continue to search for any additional Presidential records that have not been transferred to NARA, as required by the Presidential Records Act.

7. Has the Archivist notified the Attorney General that former President Trump removed presidential records from the White House? If not, why not?

Answer: Because NARA identified classified information in the boxes, NARA staff has been in communication with the Department of Justice.

8. Is NARA aware of presidential records that President Trump destroyed or attempted to destroy without the approval of NARA? If so, please provide a detailed description of such records, the actions taken by President Trump to destroy or attempt to destroy them, and any actions NARA has taken to recover or preserve these documents.

Answer: In June 2018, NARA learned from a press report in Politico that textual Presidential records were being torn up by former President Trump and that White House staff were attempting to tape them back together. NARA sent a letter to the Deputy Counsel to the President asking for information about the extent of the problem and how it is being addressed. The White House Counsel's Office indicated that they would address the matter. After the end of the Trump Administration, NARA learned that additional paper records that had been torn up by former President Trump were included in the records transferred to us. Although White House staff during the Trump Administration recovered and taped together some of the torn-up records, a number of other torn-up records that were transferred had not been reconstructed by the White House.

Sincerely,

Re: Grand Jury Subpoena

Dear Per. 18:

Thank you for agreeing to accept service of the grand jury subpoena on behalf of the custodian of records for the Office of Donald J. Trump.

As we discussed, in lieu of personally appearing on May 24, the custodian may comply with the subpoena by providing any responsive documents to the FBI at the place of their location. The FBI will ensure that the agents retrieving the documents have the proper clearances and will handle the materials in the appropriate manner. The custodian would also provide a sworn certification that the documents represent all responsive records. If there are no responsive documents, the custodian would provide a sworn certification to that effect.

Thank you again for your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Jay I. Bratt
Chief

TRANSITORY RECORD
Good Morning [REDACTED] FBI 25, 8, 15, 39 [REDACTED]

Thank you so much for your hospitality and assistance to date on captioned matter. This is a beautiful place.
You have been added the main case and 302 sub-files: [REDACTED]

Please see the highlights below from our interview yesterday and current updates. Additionally, allow me to e-introduce the WFO Team so you know who is who moving forward.

Yellow highlights denote updates after 5pm, yesterday:

From the interview of [REDACTED] Per. 34 [REDACTED], the FBI and DOJ learned the following: 302 is in work.

- The interview took place at an office space [REDACTED];
- The interview started at/around 9:55am and ended at/around 12:55pm
- Mr. Bratt, SAs [REDACTED] FBI 21A, 11 [REDACTED] then returned to the West Palm Beach RA and briefed

█ FBI 19 Also present telephonically for this briefing were █ FBI 10 and DAG George Toscas;

- Witness appeared nervous, but was cooperative and forthcoming. █ was able to provide some timelines and dates, but unable to provide specific dates for some questions.

General Takeaways

- Witness conveyed FPOTUS wanted everything in hard copy, he frequently took documents and newspapers to his residence suite both in the White House and MAL;
- There were many boxes in the WH Residence referred to by the witness as “his boxes” and these were moved around when FPOTUS traveled; witness described these as white banker boxes with blue stripes and some cardboard printer/paper boxes;
- Prior to the last day in office, the move out/pack out was chaotic; there were no master lists or inventories; █;
- Witness never saw contents inside of the 15 boxes;
- There are an additional 70-80 boxes of documents that remain at Mar-A-Lago (MAL); these were described as similar to the 15 boxes already returned to NARA
- In approximately May 2021, FPOTUS asked Per. 19 to find storage space [at MAL, where Per. 19 is employed];
- Between January 21, 2021 – August 2021, the boxes were stored in at least two different rooms within in MAL. One of these rooms was the former SCIF was located within MAL.
- By August/September 2021, the 70-80 boxes were moved to a ground floor storage area in an unlocked storage space;
- There was a key lock installed on this room eventually; drama ensued between 45 Office staff and MAL staff members regarding who had keys;
- Per. 34 chose the 15 boxes sent to NARA as they were the most convenient for Per. 34 to access physically; these came from the ground level storage facility where all remaining boxes are currently located;
- Per. 34 █ as those designated to be sent back to NARA; █
- At this time, witness gave █ storage facility to FPOTUS as █ role was completed;
- Post Jan 2021, witness has seen documents bearing classification markings (NFI) on FPOTUS’ desk in MAL when █
- Witness described seeing newer and older boxes in FPOTUS’ bedroom here at MAL (post-administration);
- Witness described hearing from about a trip via airplane with FPOTUS over the summer of 2021, departing from Bedminster, NJ, where FPOTUS allegedly held a classified map and describe its contents to the passengers onboard (NARA review team has seen a similar document matching description);
- Witness stated there is an additional storage facility in this AOR, but witness conveyed █

- Witness provided leads for interviews of Per. 19, Per. 4 (GJS in hand)

Next Steps and Updates in the Past 24 Hours:

- We have contacted Walt Nauta for an interview. After initially agreeing to speak to us this evening at the WPBRA; he has retained an attorney and this interview will be postponed;
- Search Warrant PC is being collated by Case Agents, should it become necessary
- Service of GJS for MAL employee/witness Per. 4 served at 5:47pm on 5/18
- Service of GJS for MAL employee/witness Per. 19 not yet served after several attempts to contact her via phone and at her residence
  - o This GJS is being forwarded to [redacted], of the local US Secret Service office. He has graciously offered to try to serve the GJS to Per. 19 [redacted] at MAL;
- An Interview of Per. 22 will be conducted 5/26/2022;
- Interview of Per. 3 (scheduled to be interviewed in WFO AOR in two weeks)
- An EC requesting declassification of the existence of this case is in work presently, should we need it (pending SW)

To Determine:

- If Venue will be established
- FBI Logistics of box collection whether SW or GJS answer via P. 18 /FPOTUS reps; coord with USSS, etc.

Thank you,

11 Q. -- on --

12 WITNESS: It's something that every attorney does

13 know.

14 Q. Is there a limitation that, for the communication
15 to be attorney/client privilege, it must for the purpose of 16 asking legal advice?

17 A. Any information obtained from a client is part of,
18 you know, legal advice or representation. Yes.

19 Q. And are you aware that a client can waive that?

20 A. I am aware that a client can waive that.

21 Q. And if the former President's so cooperative, why
22 hasn't he allowed you to share his conversations with the 23 Grand Jury today?

24 A. Are you -- are we really doing this?

25 Q. I'm -- I asked you a question.
