

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF FULTON COUNTY
STATE OF GEORGIA

STATE OF GEORGIA,

v.

JEFFREY B. CLARK, ET AL.,

Defendants

Case No.

23SC188947

NOTICE OF APPEAL

Comes Now Jeffrey Bossert Clark, Defendant in the above-entitled matter, and, pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 5-6-34(b) files this Notice of Appeal with respect to the Court's "Order on Defendants' Motions to Dismiss and Disqualify the Fulton County District Attorney" filed on March 15, 2024.

The trial court granted a Certificate of Immediate Review on March 20, 2024. The defendant timely filed his Application for Interlocutory Appeal on March 29, 2024. The Georgia Court of Appeals granted the Application on May 8, 2024. (A copy of that Order is attached hereto.) This notice of appeal is timely filed pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 5-6-34(b).

The defendant designates the entire record for transmission from the Clerk of the Fulton County Superior Court to the Georgia Court of Appeals. The Clerk is directed to omit nothing from the defendant's record in case number 23SC188947 and omit nothing from all of the co-defendants' records under the same case number, 23SC188947. Further, the Clerk is directed to specifically include the pretrial hearing transcripts and exhibits, admitted or made part of the record, from the court proceedings on the following dates:

February 15, 2024;
February 16, 2024;
February 27, 2024; and
March 1, 2024.

Further, the Clerk is directed to include all sealed court proceedings, transcripts and documents under the same case number, 23SC188947.

The Court of Appeals has jurisdiction over this appeal because it is not within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Georgia Supreme Court and because the Court of Appeals granted defendant's application for interlocutory appeal with respect to the order appealed from pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 5-6-34(b).

Respectfully submitted, this 16 day of May, 2024.
