The Honorable Tom Cole
Chairman
Committee on Appropriations
H-307 The Capitol
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Chairman Cole:

The Committee on the Judiciary and its Select Subcommittee on the Weaponization of the Federal Government continue to conduct vigorous oversight over the Biden Administration in an effort to protect Americans' fundamental freedoms. Last year, the Committee and the Select Subcommittee worked with then-Chairwoman Granger, Subcommittee Chairman Rogers, and the Committee on Appropriations to propose important reforms through the appropriations process.¹ These reforms include proposals to prohibit the funding of politically sensitive investigations, protect whistleblowers against retaliation, prevent taxpayer funds from being used to implement radical regulations, prohibit the funding of disastrous Biden immigration policies, and stop the funding of government censorship—among other proposals—which were included in Subcommittee or Full Committee-passed bills.²

As the Appropriations Committee continues its work for fiscal year 2025, we look forward to building on our work from last year and better utilizing Congress's power of the purse to protect the civil liberties of the American people, promote government accountability, and rein in the Biden Administration's disastrous policies. To that end, we respectfully write again to recommend several reforms and other measures for your consideration, including the following:

- Immigration enforcement and border security. Under the Biden Administration, at least 6.5 million illegal aliens have been allowed into the country, including more than 4.7 million illegal aliens released by the Biden Administration and 1.8 million known “gotaways.”³ The Biden Administration has systematically dismantled effective border enforcement strategies, causing a surge of encounters at the southwest border, creating vulnerabilities that criminal aliens and gangs exploit to the detriment of Americans across the country. For example, the amount of fentanyl seized at the southwest border continues to increase and break records each year.⁴ In addition, Border Patrol has seen an influx of illegal aliens on the terror watchlist enter the country along the southwest border.⁵ As such, the Committee recommends that the Appropriations Committee prohibit the use of taxpayer dollars from funding the Biden Administration’s open-border immigration policies.

¹ Letter from the Honorable Jim Jordan, Chairman, H. Comm. on the Judiciary, to the Honorable Kay Granger, Chairwoman, H. Comm. on Approps. (July 11, 2023); Letter from the Honorable Hal Rogers, Chairman, Subcomm. on Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies, Comm. on Approps., to the Honorable Jim Jordan, Chairman, H. Comm. on the Judiciary (Nov. 2, 2023).

² See generally H.R. 5893, 118th Cong. (2023) (as introduced); H.R. 4367, 118th Cong. (2023) (as passed by the House on Sept. 28, 2023).

- Reining in abusive federal law enforcement agencies. The Committee and Select Subcommittee have received testimony about egregious abuses, misallocation of federal law-enforcement resources, and misconduct within the leadership ranks of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). We recommend that the Appropriations Committee include language to eliminate any funding for the FBI that is not essential for the agency to execute its mission, including rescinding prior appropriations and prohibiting new taxpayer funding for any new FBI headquarters facility. We also recommend tying funding for the FBI to specific policy changes—such as requiring the FBI to record interviews—that will promote accountability and transparency at the FBI.
- Stopping politicized prosecutions. We have conducted oversight of the troubling rise in politicized prosecutions and the use of abusive “lawfare” tactics to target political opponents. We have seen rogue prosecutors abuse the rules of professional conduct and their duty to do justice in service of politicized ends. We recommend that the Appropriations Committee, with appropriate consultation from leadership, include language to eliminate federal funding for state prosecutors or state attorneys general involved in lawfare and to zero out federal funding for federal prosecutors engaged in such abuse. In addition, the Judiciary Committee has passed specific bills that would help to address politicized prosecutions and we encourage the Appropriations Committee to consider including the policies contained in each: H.R. 2553, the No More Political Prosecutions Act, and H.R. 2595, the Forfeiture Funds Expenditure Transparency Act.

- Protecting FBI whistleblowers. The Committee and Select Subcommittee have received whistleblower testimony from several current and former FBI employees who chose to risk their careers to expose abuses and misconduct in the FBI. We ask that the Appropriations Committee include language that prohibits retaliation against FBI whistleblowers, including by prohibiting taxpayer dollars from being used to pay the salary of any Justice Department or FBI employee who is found to have retaliated against a whistleblower. Additionally, we recommend language prohibiting the FBI from using the security clearance adjudication process in a retaliatory fashion against whistleblowers.
- Protecting Freedom of Speech online. The Committee and the Select Subcommittee have been conducting robust oversight of how federal agencies coerce and collude with companies and other intermediaries to censor Americans' constitutionally protected speech. Information obtained throughout the course of our investigation reveals the extent to which the Executive Branch, most notably the Biden White House, has pressured social media companies to censor, manipulate, or chill online public discourse. The Committee and the Select Subcommittee's investigation has also uncovered documents showing how third-party entities, such as universities and non-profits, partnered with executive branch agencies—like the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the Global Engagement Center—to secretly but thoroughly monitor and censor Americans' speech online. We respectfully request language in fiscal year 2025 appropriations bills to prohibit taxpayer funds from being used to censor Americans online or to classify speech as so-called “mis-, dis-, or mal-information.” We also ask that the Appropriations Committee eliminate taxpayer dollars going to DHS's Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency's (CISA) Foreign Influence Operations and Disinformation office, the Global Engagement Center, and other governmental and non-governmental entities that are engaged in speech suppression. Finally, the Committee has advanced H.R. 4848, the Censorship Accountability Act, which would provide Americans with recourse against federal officials when their First Amendment rights are violated, and we encourage the Appropriations Committee to consider including the policies contained in that bill.
- Addressing Rising Crime in Urban American Cities. Since President Biden took office, violent crime has hit historic highs in Democrat-run cities due to the significant defunding of police budgets and the catastrophic policies of rogue prosecutors. Over the past four years, over 20 cities have defunded or considered defunding their police departments.⁶ Approximately $870 million has been cut from police department budgets nationwide since June 2020.⁷ As such, we recommend language that would ensure federal grant dollars are not being awarded to jurisdictions that choose to defund their police.

On behalf of the Committee and the Select Subcommittee, enclosed please find an initial list of suggested priorities to be included in the fiscal year 2025 appropriations bills. Like last year, these proposals stem from our robust oversight and legislative efforts, which will continue throughout the remainder of the 118th Congress. By working together, we can ensure that the appropriations process will continue to be a powerful check against the weaponization of the federal government.

Thank you for your consideration and we look forward to working with you on these important issues on behalf of the American people.

Sincerely,
