GOVERNMENT’S SUPPLEMENTAL RESPONSE TO STANDING DISCOVERY ORDER

The United States of America, by and through the Special Counsel’s Office, files this pleading to supplement prior responses (ECF Nos. 30, 59, 80, 92, 113, 122, 143, 172, 184, 190, 199, 204, 235, 253, 273, 291, 330, 362, 371, 417, 575) to the Standard Discovery Order, issued on June 13, 2023 (ECF No. 16). This pleading complies with Local Rule 88.10 and Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16.

Per the CIPA Section 3 protective orders issued in this case (ECF Nos. 150, 151, 152), the Government has provided nine prior productions of classified discovery. See ECF Nos. 158 at 3, 165 at 5-6, 173 at 5-6, 187 at 5-7, 190, 199, 204, 235, 252 at 2, 291, 417. On June 3, 2024, the Government provided to the Classified Information Security Officer (“CISO”) in an accredited facility in the Southern District of Florida a tenth production of classified discovery (“Classified Production 10”). Classified Production 10, which consists of approximately 264 pages, includes the following: (1) approximately 112 additional pages of emails the Government has characterized as “after-action reports”; (2) approximately 76 pages of additional versions of previously produced after-action reports; (3) approximately 70 pages of other emails related to briefings of former President Trump; and (4) approximately six pages of publicly available material that are classified in the context of this case.

The Government responds to the specific items identified in the standing discovery order as set forth below.

- B. DEMAND FOR RECIPROCAL DISCOVERY: The United States requests the disclosure and production of those items described and listed in paragraph B of the Standing Discovery Order, and as provided by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(b).
- C. The Government is providing information or material known to the United States that may be favorable to either defendant on the issues of guilt or punishment within the scope of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), or United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976).
- D. The Government has disclosed and will continue to disclose any payments, promises of immunity, leniency, preferential treatment, or other inducements made to prospective Government witnesses, within the scope of Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), or Napue v. Illinois, 360 U.S. 264 (1959).
- J. The Government’s discovery productions include the grand jury testimony and recordings of witnesses who may testify for the Government at the trial of this case.

The Government is aware of its continuing duty to disclose newly discovered additional information required by the Standing Discovery Order, Rule 16(c) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Brady, Giglio, Napue, and the obligation to assure a fair trial.

Respectfully submitted,

JACK SMITH
Special Counsel
