AFFIDAVIT OF HILDA TOBIAS KENNEDY'S STATEMENT OF INTEREST IN THE CASE IN SUPPORT OF DONALD TRUMP [ECF 326] TO MOTION TO DISMISS.

I, Hilda Tobias Kennedy, state that I am 93 years old; legally blind; My husband was kidnapped and soon adjudicated<sup>1</sup>, which caused my entire nuclear family suffered a great deal of stress due to it, including PTSD due to the cruelty of it; And in 2013, a 14,000-pound bus (jitney) crushed me in Atlantic City and caused me horrific disfigurements, pain, and cost a million dollars over time. The judge allowed the defendant to ask me 22 times the distance between when I got off the jitney to the curb. I am legally blind and could not do it. The defendant presented no case, and the driver died. The judge gave a directed verdict against me. My attorney failed to defend me for my disabilities and did not protect me or my rights or preserve my rights on appeal, causing me suffering<sup>2</sup>. Because of the problems I have had, my family has almost become homeless and has suffered economically loss and much pain and suffering since.

Because the above I have become a more inspired advocate for fairness than ever before, as Martin Luther King has also inspired me; "injustice somewhere is a threat to justice everywhere". This is why I apply my amici request here for government funds misused, which must be stopped.

This amicus motion is privately funded: An amicus brief [motion] is most impactful when it is not funded or authored by a party or a party's counsel. See Universal City Studios, Inc. v. Reimerdes, 111 F. Supp. 2d 294, 304 (S.D.N.Y. 2000), aff'd sub nom. Universal City Studios, Inc. v. Corley, 273 F.3d 429 (2d Cir. 2001). But of course, "by the nature of things an amicus is not normally impartial . . . there is no rule that amici must be totally disinterested." Tafas, 511 F. Supp. 2d at 661 (cleaned up).

I, Jessica Nan Berk, am a disabled, indigent, pro se, and I state that my family has survived the Holocaust to come to this court for justice for all.

I have interaction with an Arthur Schwartz of Advocates for Justice, who is a crucial fundraiser for several prominent Democratic political offices, including the District Attorney for the New York City and the Attorney General of the State of New York.

I have explained to the New York District Attorney, the New York Attorney General, the F.B.I., and the United States District Attorney that Mr. Schwartz wields political power and uses it to conduct illegal activity, such as creating false wills by the fraud of an older woman, like as my mother after he gained our trust. I have suffered economical loss because no one has replied and resolved the matter:

I'm sharing a copy of my mother's will and Mr. Schwartz's irrevocable trust after he was appointed my mother's guardian to prove that my claims are more easily proven and severe than those against the Defendant in the case, given the similar past cases. My case is more easily proven yet the state chooses to overlook my needs, negligently use public funds. This makes my interest in this case a matter of public interest.

It is respectfully submitted under the penalty of Perjury.

REQUEST

Jessica Nan Berk, and Hilda Tobias Kennedy, disabled, pro se, indigent, private citizens, elderly, respectfully submit this informal motion for leave to present oral arguments as amici in support of President Trump's Motion to Dismiss the Indictment Based on the Unlawful Appointment and Funding of Special Counsel Jack Smith and submit an alternative resolution [E.C.F. No. 326] pursuant to THE COURT ORDER: "Any Amici wishing to present oral argument during this ring must seek leave of Court to do so no later than June 3, 2024.":

Amicus briefs [MOTIONS] filed in district court should adhere to the same requirements as those applicable in the Court of Appeals. See Fed. R. App. P. 29; Jin v. Ministry of State Sec., 557 F. Supp. 2d 131, 136-37 (D.D.C. 2008). Unless the amicus is the government or its agency, the amicus must file with consent or court permission. Fed. R. App. P. 29(a)(2).

The motion must be accompanied by the proposed amicus brief [if required], and a statement of the movant's interest [AFFIDAVITS ATTACHED] and how the brief [ORAL ARGUMENT] will assist the Court. Id. R. 29(a)(3)(A)-(B). An amicus brief should be filed as promptly as possible to avoid prejudicing the parties [by June 2, 2024]. Tafas v. Dudas, 511 F. Supp. 2d 652, 660 (E.D. Va. 2007).

The affidavits attached are our statement(s) of interest for filing this motion.

We have the knowledge and experience the Court may find helpful.

We would want the Court to respectfully see that the funding the state has used, legal or not, to prosecute the Defendant is disproportional to the acts for which others in his same category and class have gone unpunished for the same crime as explained by the Defendant fillings without the semantics by the opposition.

Furthermore, our interest is in the misuse of government funds that do not support the people's interest of justice but is more political in nature. In contrast, funding is greatly needed for crimes against seniors and the disabled, veterans, the elderly, abused children/adults, etc, and the Department of Justice is grossly failing to use the people's money where it matters and should not be condoned for pursuing such a costly and dragged out litigation that could be quickly resolved cheaply [A fine and community service] but for the fact that the Department of Justice is operating in a manner that is prejudicial to the interest of the people in seeking to imprison former President Trump only for the period of the election cycle since it has no money to continue after this year. "Justice Department projects a large drop in special counsel spending. President Joe Biden's budget proposal estimates that expenditures for special prosecutors will drip from 29 million this fiscal year (2023) to 4 million the next." By JOSH

Hilda Tobias Kennedy and me, Jessica Nan Berk, are not only renowned activists for progressive issues and disabled rights, but we are victims of discrimination as a disabled person, as you can see in Exhibits/Affidavits "A" and "B" in support of the statement of interest.

We can not, in good conscience, see such a waste of money and miscarriage of justice go without words spoken, as we have suffered so greatly from our miscarriage of justice ourselves.

Under Rule 1 of this Court the parties are not meeting its objective. Scope and Purpose: These rules govern the procedure in all civil actions and proceedings in the United States district courts, except as stated in Rule 81. They should be construed, administered, and employed by the Court and the parties to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding. The parties herein are not being subjected to this rule by the Court.

We would also like to urge Congress to make some common sense legislation to stop this continued violation of removing sensitive documents without some kind of order, putting us all at risk.

LEGAL MEMORANIUM

A. MEANING AND HISTORY OF AMICI

An amicus curiae [amici] (lit. 'friend of the court'; pl. amici curiae) is an individual or organization that is not a party to a legal case, but that is permitted to assist a court by offering information, expertise or insight that has a bearing on the issues in the case. Whether an amicus brief [oral argument] will be considered is typically under the Court's discretion. The phrase is legal Latin and the origin of the term has been dated to 1605–1615. The scope of amici curiae is generally found in the cases where broad public interests are involved and concerns regarding civil rights are in question.

In American law, an amicus curiae typically refers to what in some other jurisdictions is known as an intervenor: a person or organization who requests to provide legal submissions so as to offer a relevant alternative or additional perspective regarding the matters in dispute. In the American courts, the amicus may be referred to as an amicus brief. In other jurisdictions, such as Canada, an amicus curiae is a lawyer who is asked by the Court to provide legal submissions regarding issues that would otherwise not be aired properly, often because one or both of the parties is not represented by counsel. Wikipedia.

Amici curiae [Amici] have been successful in helping to persuade the Court in a number of recent high-profile civil rights matters. See, e.g., California v. Azar, No. 19-cv-01184-EMC, 2019 WL 1877392, at *2 (N.D. Cal. April 26, 2019) (medical providers' information for pregnant patients); Regents of the Univ. of Cal., 279 F. Supp. 3d at 1046 (DACA's impact on the tech sector); Duronslet v. Cty. of L.A., 266 F. Supp. 3d 1213 (C.D. Cal. 2017) (whether heightened scrutiny applied to transgender minor's claim regarding restroom access).

And amicus participation is not limited to civil rights cases. Amici have weighed in on thousands of district court cases with the potential to affect all manner of government and business interests. See, e.g., Goldman v. Breitbart News Network, LLC, 302 F. Supp. 3d 585, 593 (S.D.N.Y. 2018) (copyright); Ohio Valley Envtl. Coal., Inc. v. McCarthy, 313 F.R.D. 10, 32 (S.D.W. Va. 2015) (environment); In re BRCA1-, BRCA2-Based Hereditary Cancer Test Patent Litig., 3 F. Supp. 3d 1213, 1220 (D. Utah), aff'd and remanded, 774 F.3d 755 (Fed. Cir. 2014) (cancer patents); United States v. S.B.C. Commc'ns, Inc., 489 F. Supp. 2d 1, 8 (D.D.C. 2007) (telecommunications antitrust).

B. IMPORTANCE OF AMICI

When litigating high-stakes cases—even in district court—parties should consider recruiting amici, who can provide a unique perspective about the broader social and business interests at stake. A well-written amicus brief can persuade the judge to pay closer attention to how a ruling may actually affect nonparties, and as a result, may ultimately impact the outcome of the case.

Potential amici are likely to be interested in the broader impact on the law, especially when the case involves novel legal questions or pertains to an issue of public interest. Paul M. Collins, Jr., Who Participates as Amici Curiae in the U.S. Courts of Appeals?, 94 Judicature 128, 134 (2010). Amici may provide new perspectives and educate the Court about the broader consequences its ruling may have.

For example, a group of amici weighed in on the district court case involving the termination of the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. Regents of the Univ. of Cal. v. U.S. Dep't of Homeland Sec., 279 F. Supp. 3d 1011 (N.D. Cal. 2018) (Doc. 137-3). The amici were over a hundred tech companies, including Facebook and Microsoft, whose employees and businesses would be affected if DACA were terminated. The amici argued that terminating DACA would result in substantial economic damage to their businesses and the national G.D.P. The district court granted the injunction, finding irreparable harm to "organization interests, economic output, public health, and safety." Id. at 1046. Summer Associate, Kayla Bowen, co-authored.

C. AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES REASONABLE REQUEST

We did not see that a brief is required per the court order but as such we are disabled and could not have one done in the time of June 2, 2024, so as a reasonable request under A.D.A. Hilda Tobias Kennedy and I, Jessica Nan Berk are only submitting our request for oral argument. In the alternative, Jessica Nan Berk and Hilda Tobias Kennedy respectfully request additional time to file a brief in support of this motion.

CONCLUSION

This amicus motion is privately funded: An amicus brief [motion] is most impactful when it is not funded or authored by a party or a party's counsel. See Universal City Studios, Inc. v. Reimerdes, 111 F. Supp. 2d 294, 304 (S.D.N.Y. 2000), aff'd sub nom. Universal City Studios, Inc. v. Corley, 273 F.3d 429 (2d Cir. 2001). But of course, "by the nature of things an amicus is not normally impartial . . . there is no rule that amici must be totally disinterested." Tafas, 511 F. Supp. 2d at 661 (cleaned up).

We respectfully submit this motion to request oral arguments in the interest of justice under FRCP RULE 1 as stated above.

Respectfully Submitted,

However, the Trustee shall have the right of contribution as provided in Sections 2207 and 2207A IRC, if it is applicable.

The cost of storing, packing, shipping and insuring any tangible personal property gift prior to delivery to its intended recipient shall be paid by the Trust.

ARTICLE IV
DEATH OF THE TRUSTOR

(A) DISTRIBUTIONS AND DISBURSEMENTS

Upon the death of the Trustor, and after the payment of the Trustor's just debts, funeral expenses and expenses of last illness, and the disbursements listed in Article III of this Trust, the distributions shall be made as per the Trustor's will.

(B) PERPETUITIES CLAUSE

Notwithstanding any provision of this Trust to the contrary, all Trusts shall vest in their then beneficiary twenty-one years after the death of the last of the issue of the Trustor who was alive when the Trustor died.

ARTICLE V INCAPACITY, REHABILITATION, AND GUARDIANSHIP

Throughout this Trust Agreement, where there have been references to "incapacity" and "rehabilitation", those two terms shall have the following meanings:

(A) "INCAPACITATED"

Arthur Schwartz as a Trustee, once deemed incapacitated under Paragraph (A) of this Article, shall be deemed rehabilitated when he or she is no longer under a legal disability or when, in the written opinion of two doctors currently practicing medicine, he or she is able to properly manage her affairs. Upon rehabilitation, he or she shall resume the duties and powers he or she had prior to incapacity and her successors shall relinquish all powers and be relieved of all duties.

(C) "GUARDIANSHIP"

In the event the Trustor is adjudicated incompetent by any court having jurisdiction, pursuant to New York State Statutes or similar provisions of the laws of any other state having jurisdiction, the Trustor does hereby nominate the same person(s) in name and order of succession who serve as Trustee as provided in Article 11(A) as Guardian of the property of the incompetent Trustor, and the same person(s) in name and order of succession as provided in Article IX(B) as Guardian of the person of the incompetent Trustor. The Trustor further directs that the Court honor Article 1(B) of the Trust by permitting the completion of the conveyance to the Trustee of any assets which remain registered to the Trustor.

ARTICLE VI PROVISIONS REGARDING THE TRUSTEE

The following general provisions apply to the Trustee and any Successor Trustee of any Trust which is created by this Trust Agreement:

(A) GENERAL PROVISIONS

- (1) TRUSTEE'S POWER: It is the intention of the Trustor to grant to the Trustee the power to deal with all of the Trust property as freely as the Trustor could do individually, and the only requirement that the Trustor places upon the Trustee is that the Trustee act as a fiduciary in good faith. The Trustee shall have all the powers and protection granted to Trustees by statute at the time of application, including all of the powers enumerated below or contained in any Certificate of Trust signed by the Trustor; and the Trustor intends that such powers be construed in the broadest possible manner.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustee shall not hold or exercise any power or any discretion granted by Article VII which creates unexpected or adverse tax consequences to the Trustor's estate, any Trust created by this agreement, or any beneficiary, or which causes taxation to the Trustee or her estate by virtue of the existence of the power. The Trustee's powers are ministerial in nature and are not intended to create or alter substantive rights. The limitations of this paragraph shall not affect the rights of any third person who deals with the Trustee.

(B) SPECIFIC POWERS OF THE TRUSTEE

- (1) RETAIN TRUST ESTATE: To retain, without liability for loss or depreciation resulting from such retention, the original assets and all other property later transferred, devised or bequeathed to the Trustee for such time as the Trustee shall deem advisable although such property may not be of the character prescribed by law or by the terms of this agreement for the investment of Trust assets and although it represents a large percentage of all of any Trust; said original property may accordingly be held as a permanent investment.
- (2) HOLD UNINVESTED CASH AND UNDERPRODUCTIVE PROPERTY: For any periods deemed advisable, to hold cash, uninvested, even though the total amount so held is disproportionate under trust investment law or would not be permitted without this provision, and to retain or acquire and hold underproductive realty or personalty.
- (3) INVEST AND ACQUIRE: To invest and reinvest Trust assets in any type of property or security or any interests in such property (including co-tenancies and remainders) without regard to the proportion that investments of the type selected may bear to the entire Trust estate, without limitation to the classes of trust investments authorized by law, and without regard to the possibility that the investments may be in new issues or in new or foreign enterprises, and to write options against long positions. The property acquired may be realty or personalty and may include life insurance, bonds, debentures, leaseholds, options, easements, mortgages, notes, mutual funds, investment trusts, common trust funds, voting trust certificates, limited partnership interests, U.S. Treasury obligations redeemable at par in payment of Federal Estate Tax, and any class of stock or rights to subscribe for stock, regardless of whether the yield rate is high or low or whether or not the new asset produces any income at all. It is intended that the Trustee shall have the authority to act in any manner deemed in the best interests of the Trust involved, regarding it as a whole, even though certain investments considered alone might not otherwise be proper.

- (4) OPTIONS, WARRANTS, PUTS, CALLS, COMMODITY AND MARGIN ACCOUNTS: The Trustee is specifically authorized, in her discretion, to buy, sell or transfer options, warrants, puts, calls, commodities, futures contracts, repurchase contracts, and to maintain brokerage margin accounts.

- (8) INSURANCE: To carry any insurance deemed advisable with any insurer against any hazards, including public liability, and to use insurance proceeds to repair or replace the asset insured. In addition, the Trustee may carry or purchase life insurance on the life of any Trust beneficiary, and exercise or release any rights in such policy.
- (9) LEND: On any terms deemed advisable, to lend Trust funds to any borrower, including the personal Representative of a Trustor's estate and the Trustee or beneficiary of any trust, by whomsoever created, and to change the terms of these loans. This authorization includes the power to extend them beyond maturity with or without renewal and without regard to the existence or value of any security, and to facilitate payment, to change the interest rate, and to consent to the modification of any guarantee.
- (10) BORROW: To borrow whatever money the Trustee deems desirable for any Trust on any terms from any lender, including the personal Representative a Trustor's estate, and the Trustee or beneficiary of any other trust, by whomsoever created, and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber as security any assets of the borrowing Trust.

- (11) TERM OR DURATION OF OBLIGATION: Incident to the exercise of any power, to initiate or change the terms of collection or of payment of any debt, security, or other obligation of or due to any Trust, upon any terms and for any period, including a period beyond the duration or the termination of any or all Trusts.
- (12) COMPROMISE OR ABANDONMENT OF CLAIMS: Upon whatever terms the Trustee deems advisable, to compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on, defend, or otherwise deal with any claims, including tax claims, against or in favor of any Trust, to abandon any asset the Trustee deems of no value or of insufficient value to warrant keeping or protecting; to refrain from paying taxes, assessments, or rents, and from repairing or maintaining any asset; and to permit any asset to be lost by tax sale or other proceeding.
- (13) DISTRIBUTION IN CASH OR IN PROPERTY: To distribute any shares in cash or in property, or partly in each, and the Trustee's valuations of and selection of assets upon making distribution shall, if made in good faith, be final and binding on all beneficiaries.
- (14) USE OF NOMINEE: To hold any or all of the Trust assets, real or personal, in the Trustee's own name, or in the single name of any Co-Trustee, or in the name of any corporation, partnership, or other person as the Trustee's nominee for holding the assets, with or without disclosing the fiduciary relationship. A corporate Trustee shall have the power to appoint a Trustee to administer property in any jurisdiction in which it shall fail to qualify.
- (15) BID ON OR TAKE OVER WITHOUT FORECLOSURE: To foreclose any mortgage, to bid on the mortgaged property at the foreclosure sale or acquire it from the mortgagor without foreclosure, and to retain it or dispose of it upon any terms deemed advisable.
- (16) PAY OFF ENCUMBRANCES: To pay off any encumbrance on any Trust asset and to invest additional amounts to preserve it or to increase its productivity.
- (17) VOTE STOCK: To vote stock for any purpose in person or by proxy, to enter into a voting trust, and to participate in corporate activities related to a trust in any capacity permitted by law, including service as officer or director.
- (18) PARTICIPATE IN REORGANIZATION: To unite with other owners of property similar to any held in Trust in carrying out foreclosure, lease, sale, incorporation, dissolution, liquidation, reincorporation, reorganization, or readjustment of the capital or financial structure of any association or corporation in which any Trust has a financial interest, to serve as a member of any protective committee, to deposit Trust securities in accordance with any plan agreed upon; to pay any assessments, expenses, or other sums deemed expedient for the protection or furtherance of the interests of the beneficiaries; and to receive and retain as Trust investments any new securities issued pursuant to the plan, even though these securities would not constitute authorized Trust investments without this provision.

- (19) PURCHASE PROPERTY FROM ESTATE OR TRUST: To purchase property, real or personal, from a Trustor's or a beneficiary's estate or trust for their benefit upon such terms and conditions, price and terms of payment as the Trustee and the respective personal Representative or Trustee shall agree upon, to hold the property so purchased in Trust although it may not qualify as an authorized Trust investment except for this provision, and to dispose of such property as and when the Trustee shall deem advisable.
- (20) EMPLOYMENT OF ASSISTANTS AND AGENTS: To any extent reasonably necessary, to employ attorneys-at-law, accountants, financial planners, brokers, investment advisors, realtors, managers for businesses or farms, technical consultants, attorneys-in-fact, agents and any other consultants and assistants the Trustee deems advisable for the proper administration of any Trust.
- (21) ESTABLISHMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF RESERVES: Out of the rents, profits, or other gross income received, to set aside and maintain reserves to the extent deemed advisable to meet present or future expenses, including taxes, assessments, insurance premiums, debt amortization, repairs, improvements, depreciation, obsolescence, general maintenance and reasonable compensation for services, including services of professional and other employees, as well as to provide for the effects of fluctuations in gross income and to equal or apportion payments for the benefit of beneficiaries entitled to receive income.
- (22) MANAGE REALTY: To deal with real and personalty, including oil, gas, and mineral rights in any manner lawful to an owner. - b. To incorporate, dissolve, liquidate, or sell such business at such time and upon such terms as the Trustee deems advisable. In this regard the Trustee's decision may be based upon qualified appraisal, and the Trustee shall not be obligated to seek other offers in contracting for sale to any person including another shareholder, trust, or beneficiary;
- c. To borrow money for business purposes and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber the assets of any Trust to secure the loan;

- e. To create a special lien for the payment of deferred death taxes under 6324 IRC, or similar provisions of state law.
- f. To create, continue, or terminate an S-Corporation election.

(C) DEALINGS WITH THE TRUSTEE

Any person who deals in good faith with the Trustee shall deal only with the Trustee and shall presume that the Trustee has full power and authority to act. No person shall require court confirmation or the approval of a beneficiary for any transaction with the Trustee. The signature of the Trustee shall bind the interest of any Trust beneficiary, including the Trustor, and no person need see the application of any property delivered to the Trustee.

(D) COMPENSATION OF TRUSTEE

Any Trustee who is also a beneficiary hereunder shall serve without compensation for his or her services except that the Trustee shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses incurred in the administration of the Trust. Any Trustee not a beneficiary hereunder shall receive as compensation for its services, unless waived, such amount of compensation as is customarily being charged by commercial trust companies for services as a trustee of an inter vivos trust in the State of New York.

(E) BOND AND QUALIFICATIONS

No bond shall be required of the Trustee or any Successor Trustee. The Trustee and any Successor Trustee shall not be required to qualify in any court and are relieved of the filing of any document and accounting in any court.

(F) SUCCESSOR TRUSTEE(S)

No Successor Trustee shall be responsible for acts of any prior Trustee. In the event a Trustee of any Trust is unable to serve or continued to serve as Trustee for any reason and no successor has been provided, the Successor Trustee shall be elected in writing by any of the persons who have previously served as Trustee, with preference in the making of such appointment being determined in the same order of their succession as Trustee. If no appointment exists, the Successor Trustee shall be elected in writing by the majority in interest in the income of the Trust. No person shall be required to apply to any court in any jurisdiction for confirmation of said appointment. Any Successor Trustee so elected shall either be an issue of the Trustor or shall be a corporate Trustee qualified to exercise Trust powers.

(G) REMOVAL OF SUCCESSOR TRUSTEES

In the event a Successor Trustee is administering any Trust created hereunder, the Successor Trustee may be removed by the last individual to serve as Trustee; however, if that person is deceased or incapacitated, the Successor Trustee may be removed by a majority vote in interest in Trust income. Said removal must be in writing, stating the reasons for removal and indicate the successor Trustee, which must be a corporate trustee.

Removal of a Successor Trustee shall be permitted only for the convenient administration of the Trust. For example, a Successor Trustee may be removed in order to transfer administration to the place of residence of a primary beneficiary, or because of mismanagement of Trust funds, or because of excessive fees, or because of lack of attention to Trust matters, or other such reason. Removal shall not be permitted for the purpose of influencing the exercise of discretion of a Successor Trustee which is granted by this instrument. For example, removal of a Successor Trustee that refuses to make a discretionary invasion of principal shall not be allowed. Removal of a Successor Trustee shall be effective upon delivery of the notice of removal and the removed Trustee shall have a reasonable period of time to transfer assets to its successor. In the event the successor Trustee believes that its removal is improper, it may, but shall not be required to, apply to a court of competent jurisdiction, at its expense, for a declaration of the propriety of the removal. In that event, the removal shall be effective only upon the order of said court and after any appeal. In the event the Successor Trustee prevails it shall be entitled to reimbursement from the Trust for its reasonable costs and attorneys fees.

(H) DELEGATION

Any Trustee may delegate any management function of any Trust to any other Successor Trustee (even though the Successor Trustee is not then serving as Trustee) upon such terms as may be agreed by the Trustees. In the event more than one Trustee is serving, Trust assets may be held in the name of one Trustee.

(I) LIMITED POWER TO AMEND

The Trustee may amend this Trust to create or renounce management powers as may be required to facilitate the convenient administration of this Trust, deal with the unexpected or the unforeseen, or avoid unintended or adverse tax consequences. The amendment shall be in writing and shall be consented to by the Trustor, if not then deceased or incapacitated, or the beneficiaries of any Trust. The amendment may be retroactive. This limited power may only be exercised to provide for the convenient administration of any Trust; and shall not affect the rights of any beneficiary to enjoy Trust income or principal without his consent, shall not alter the dispositive provisions of any Trust, and shall not be exercisable in such a manner as to create gift, estate, or income taxation to the Trustee or any beneficiary. No amendment shall affect the rights of third persons who have dealt or may deal with the Trustee without their consent.

ARTICLE VII
ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

(A) CARRYING SEVERAL TRUSTS AS ONE ESTATE

To the extent that division of any Trust is directed, the Trustee may administer any Trust physically undivided until actual division becomes necessary. Further, the Trustee may add the assets of the Trust for any beneficiary to any other trust for such beneficiary having substantially the same provisions for the disposition of trust income and principal, whether or not such trust is created by this agreement. The Trustee may commingle the assets of several trusts for the same beneficiary, whether or not created by this agreement, and account for whole or fractional trust shares as a single estate, making the division thereof by appropriate entries in the books of account only, and to allocate to each whole or fractional trust share its proportionate part of all receipts and expenses; provided, however, this carrying of several trusts as a single estate shall not defer the vesting of any whole or fractional share of a trust for its beneficiary at the times specified.

(B) ALLOCATION TO PRINCIPAL AND INCOME

All receipts of money or property paid or delivered to the Trustee and all expenses may be allocated to principal or income in accordance with the laws of the State of New York or any other state in which a Trust is being administered. However, the Trustee, in a reasonable and equitable manner, shall have the discretion to allocate, in whole or in part:

1. Administration expenses to income or principal.
2. Trustee's fees to income or principal.
3. To income, any expense of the administration of the Trust or its assets which is deductible for Federal Income Tax purposes.

4. To income, the gains or losses from option trading, and capital gains distributions from utility shares, on mutual funds, or tax managed funds; and
5. To income or principal, distributions from qualified or non-qualified pension plans, profit sharing plans, IRA accounts or deferred compensation arrangements.

(C) PROHIBITION OF ALIENATION

No income or principal beneficiary of any Trust (except the Trustor) shall have any right or power to anticipate, pledge, assign, sell, transfer, alienate or encumber his or her interest in the Trust, in any way. No interest in any Trust shall, in any manner, be liable for or subject to the debts, liabilities or obligations of such beneficiary or claims of any sort against such beneficiary.

(D) SMALL TRUST TERMINATION

If, at any time, any Trust shall be in the aggregate principal value of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or less, the Trustee may, in her sole discretion, terminate such Trust and distribute the assets to the beneficiary, or beneficiaries, the share of each being in the same proportion as he or she is a beneficiary under the terms of the Trust.

(E) DISCLAIMER

Any beneficiary of any Trust shall have the right to disclaim his or her interest in said Trust. Said disclaimer may be effected in compliance with the requirements of the laws of any jurisdiction in which any Trust may be administered. Alternatively, the Trustee may act upon any written disclaimer of any interest, in whole or in part, in any Trust. In the event any beneficiary is incapacitated, the Trustee may accept the disclaimer of a legal or natural guardian of said beneficiary; and if no such guardian exists, the Trustee of any Trust, acting on behalf of the beneficiary, shall have the power to disclaim all or a part of the property passing to said Trust.

(F) ELECTIONS

The Trustee and the Personal Representative of the Trustor's estate will have various options in the exercise of discretionary powers, some of which being limited only by the requirement that the Trustee and the Personal Representative act in good faith and within the bounds of their fiduciary duty. Specifically, the Trustee or Personal Representative may make certain elections for Federal Income Tax and Estate Tax purposes which may affect the administration of Trust income or principal. The Trustee or Personal Representative may exercise any such discretion without incurring liability to any beneficiary, nor shall any beneficiary have the right to demand a reallocation or redistribution of Trust income or principal as a result of the proper action of the Trustee or Personal Representative.

(G) CERTAIN DISTRIBUTIONS

The Trustee shall have the following options with regard to the distribution of principal or income to or for a beneficiary:

1. Directly to the beneficiary such amounts as the Trustee may deem advisable as an allowance;
2. To the Guardian of the person or of the property of the beneficiary.
3. To a relative of the beneficiary upon the agreement of such relative to expend such income or principal solely for the benefit of the beneficiary, which agreement may include a custodianship under the Uniform Transfers (or Gift) to Minors Act of any state.
4. By expending such income or principal directly for the beneficiary. After making a distribution as provided above, the Trustee shall have no further obligation regarding the distribution.

(H) USE OF RESIDENCE

The Trustee may purchase or hold a residence to be occupied by the income beneficiary of any Trust (and/or her family) without rent, and the expense of maintaining the residence may be borne by the Trust, the beneficiary, or partly by each, as the Trustee may deem proper.

(I) INVESTMENT ADVISOR

The Trustor or any person then having the power to remove and replace a corporate Trustee shall have the right to appoint an investment advisor who is duly registered with the Securities Exchange Commission. Such appointment shall be in writing effective upon delivery to the corporate Trustee. Upon receiving such appointment the corporate Trustee shall follow such investment directions regarding such Trust assets the investment discretion as to which has been delegated to the investment advisor. During such time as an investment advisor is acting, the corporate Trustee shall have absolutely no liability for investment decisions which have been delegated to the investment advisor. Such appointment shall not cause the reduction of the fees charged by the corporate Trustee, nor shall it create any new liabilities of the corporate Trustee without its consent. The corporate Trustee may enter into such written agreements with the investment advisor or the person appointing the investment advisor as may be appropriate to carry out the intent of this paragraph.
