POLICE SCANNER

James A. Clark, 34, of Oklahoma City, was arrested by Creek County deputies Wednesday on Frankoma Road for possession of suspected amphetamines, according to sheriff department reports.

An affidavit by Creek County Deputy Steve Taylor stated he stopped an auto driven by Clark for failure to dim his lights.

Taylor wrote the driver was "extremely nervous" and gave deputies permission to search his vehicle.

The deputy stated he found five bags of suspected amphetamine, drug paraphernalia and a loaded .32 caliber hand gun.

Rick E. Hulsey, 37, of Bristow, was arrested Friday morning for public intoxication near Mannford, according to a report by Creek County Deputy Billy McKelvey.

McKelvey reported he found Hulsey asleep in a vehicle that was stuck in a ditch on Hwy 51 west of Mannford.
