Dear Respondents,

This letter is to notify you that the Enforcement Division of the Fair Political Practices Commission has commenced a commission-initiated investigation regarding potential violations of the use of campaign funds provisions of the Political Reform Act.

At this time, we have not made any determination about the possible violations. We are simply providing you with this information as a courtesy and may be contacting you to discuss the matter. Should you have any comments on this matter, please submit them in writing to Tara Stock at tstock@fppc.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Christopher B. Burton
