10 WHEREAS, the Anchorage Assembly approved AO 2020-116(S) on January 26, 11 2021 sending to the voters a ballot proposition “whether to approve a special tax
12 levy dedicated to payment of the costs of leasing for the Anchorage Police

17 WHEREAS, two of the sponsors of this resolution brought forward AO 2023-78, an 18 ordinance to add a requirement for a body-worn camera policy in Anchorage
19 Municipal Code, but decided not to move forward with the ordinance and instead

27 confusion and demands have grown from community members and Handy family 28 members to release the BWC footage of the incident; and 29

30 WHEREAS, at the Assembly meeting on June 11, Acting Police Chief Bianca Cross
31 publicly stated that she is open to having the Handy family view the BWC footage 32 once the Office of Special Prosecutions (OSP) decides whether charges are 33 warranted and would re-evaluate the request at that time;
34

35 WHEREAS, on July 11, 2024, APD issued a draft revised BWC policy that will
