1. Synopsis of Case:

On 7/12/24 at approximately 2105 hours, Brett and Kimberly Williams [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were camping in the area of Martin Landing, located at 31428 Scott Pit Lane in Parma, Canyon County, Idaho when they located a deceased adult male in camping area A13.

Sheriff's Office deputies and detectives responded to investigate the scene. The male was located face down, feet toward the river, with blood near his left side. A small caliber bullet wound was located in his left upper chest area. There was a spent .380 ACP casing located approximately five feet to the west toward the river. There was a wallet, Dodge keys, and a pocket knife located under a ball cap approximately one foot away from the male's right side. The male was identified by Idaho driver's license as Travis H. Calumpit (DOB [REDACTED])

A white Dodge pickup with Idaho license plate 2CVL474 was parked at the camping area entrance, approximately 1/4 mile from camping area A13. According to witnesses, the Dodge had been parked there for several hours. The Dodge was registered to Jesse and Jennifer Acuna of Parma. Jesse confirmed he was in the process of selling that vehicle to Travis Calumpit. Located in plain view in the driver's side back seat was a 9mm Highpoint pistol, which was collected. The Dodge, and the area around the body - to include the bushes, shore line, and river were extensively searched and no .380 caliber handgun was found.

Travis' last known address is by 16898 Sand Hollow Road in Caldwell, Idaho. The property is owned by his step-father, Norman Johnson [REDACTED]. Norman told detectives that earlier that day, Travis had told him that he was going to go meet with his estranged wife, Melissa F. Calumpit [REDACTED] in the hopes that they would reconcile their relationship and go camping together in Council over the weekend.

Another resident of 16898 Sand Hollow, Holly Shaddy [REDACTED] said she last spoke to Travis on 7/12/24 at approximately 5 or 6 pm. She said she heard him on a phone call with a female while he was seated in his pickup. Holly heard the female say to Travis, "Just be there. Don't be late. It's all or nothing." After the phone call, Travis told Holly he was heading to meet with Melissa at Martin Landing in the next 20 minutes.

Melissa Calumpit was interviewed by phone, as she now lives in Battle Mountain, Nevada with her mother and step-father, Rosalie and Frank Morris. Their current address is 280 N Second St #8, Battle Mountain, NV, 89820. Melissa said she and Travis have two children in common, and were married from 2010 until 2018 when they divorced. She said they remarried in 2020. Melissa had moved out of their shared residence at 109 Parma Road in Parma, Idaho on 4/27/24, due to Travis being physically abusive to the children. She said she had planned to meet up with Travis in person on 7/12/24 to inform him of her intent to divorce him.

Following notification of death to Travis' wife, Melissa Calumpit [REDACTED], detectives conducted a phone interview with Melissa. In the interview, Melissa said she and her mother, Rosalie Morris (DOB:06-22-1965) were driving to Parma from Battle Mountain, Nevada, on the 07-12-2024, but never made it to Parma due to road closures.

Melissa gave a detailed account of her activities for the date of 7/12/24:

- 0700-0730hrs: Melissa and her mother Rosalie left Battle Mountain for to Caldwell to meet with Travis. They were driving in Rosalie's blue 2003 Toyota Highlander with Nevada plate 846V76.
- 1200hrs (Idaho time): Melissa said they encountered a road closure in Marsing on Hwy 95 due to a fire (road closure confirmed by ITD)
- 1607hrs: Melissa said she received a final text from Travis
- 1600-1630: They arrived back in Battle Mountain
- 1700: She and her mother arrived in Elko, Nevada. They had dinner and went to Walmart.

Jessie Acuna gave permission to search the Dodge Ram. On 07-16-2024, detectives located a dash camera located inside the vehicle. The last video recorded on the memory card showed the vehicle entering the parking lot of Martin Landing and parking beside a blue Toyota Highlander. Dash camera shows Melissa Calumpit standing beside the Toyota.

On 07/18/2024, Rosalie and Melissa came to the Canyon County Sheriff's Office, Criminal Investigations Division, for in person interviews. I conducted an interview with Rosalie and advised her of the Miranda Warning at the beginning of the interview. Rosalie said she drove Melissa toward Parma from Battle Mountain on 07/12/2024, the day of the homicide, in her Toyota Highlander. Rosalie said they encountered a road closure south of Marsing, Idaho. Rosalie said she turned the vehicle around and returned to Nevada. Rosalie detailed going to several businesses in Winnemucca, Nevada, Battle Mountain, Nevada and Elko, Nevada that evening. Rosalie said they never made it to Parma and were not in the area at the time of the homicide.

Upon seeing the dash camera footage of Melissa at Martin Landing, Rosalie admitted she drove to Martin Landing with Melissa. Rosalie said Melissa contacted Travis to meet her there alone. Rosalie claimed she hid in an outhouse near the parking lot, out of site of Travis and Rosalie. Approximately one (1) hour after Travis arrived, Rosalie said she heard Travis yell, heard Melissa yell, then heard a single gunshot. Rosalie said she returned to the vehicle and received a phone call from Melissa. Rosalie said Melissa got into the vehicle and told her Travis was dead. Rosalie said Melissa told her Travis was bending down, grabbing phones, and Melissa hit him with a rock and, "knocked him silly." Rosalie said Melissa told her Travis lunged at her and she shot him one time in the chest. I asked Rosalie if she noticed any injuries on Melissa when she returned to the vehicle. Rosalie said she did not notice any injuries on Melissa but noted she was breathing heavily.

Rosalie said she drove toward Grand View, Idaho, near C.J. Strike Reservoir. Rosalie said Melissa stated she needed to get rid of her pistol and Travis' phone and Rosalie agreed. Rosalie drove to Cottonwood Campground at C.J. Strike Reservoir and drove to the far east point of the campground. Rosalie said Melissa exited the vehicle and threw a pistol and Travis' phone into the water. Following this, Rosalie drove to Elko, Nevada, where the two had dinner at Matties Bar and Grill.

Rosalie described Travis as an abusive, drug addict, with mental health issues. Rosalie said she decided she had to kill Travis and compared it to putting a dog down to save livestock. Rosalie said she met with family members on 07/11/2024 and told them she was planning to kill Travis. Rosalie also said she asked her son, Thomas Morris [REDACTED], where she could find an unregistered firearm. Rosalie said she planned on driving to Idaho, by herself, on 07/12/2024, to kill Travis, but Melissa insisted on coming.
