Pronouncement of Jay Bassett
U. Mass Medical Center
November 25, 2012 @ 1245 hours

On Monday, November 26, 2012 at approximately 0900 hours, I was contacted by Patricia Vannasse, a social worker at the University of Massachusetts Medical Center, 55 Lake Avenue North, Worcester. She advised me that Jay Bassett was pronounced dead on Sunday, November 25, 2012 at 1245 hours by Dr. Carrie Armsby. Ms. Vannasse advised me at that time that the medical team believed that the death appeared to be a Sudden Infant Death (SIDS), but that the Medical Examiner's Office had accepted the case and would perform an autopsy. [REDACTED] Ms. Vannasse also arranged for us to meet with the parents of the baby later that morning.
