MEMORANDUM FOR M. D. CARVAJAL, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
CORRECTIONAL PROGRAMS DIVISION

THROUGH: Thomas J. Scarantino, SDAD
Correctional Programs Division

FROM: (b)(6); (b)(7)(C) Administrator
Counter Terrorism Branch

SUBJECT: Relocation of the Communications Management Unit

As a result the 2006 OIG Audit, The Federal Bureau of Prisons' Monitoring of Mail for High Risk Inmates, the agency opened two Communication Management Units (CMU), one at FCI Terre Haute which opened in 2006, and one at FCI Marion in 2008. These units initially almost exclusively held inmates with a nexus of international terrorism, however over the past decade, the mission of the units was formalized via Program Statement 5214.02, and inmates are admitted based on five designation criteria. As a result, the units now house any inmate who requires a greater level of communications monitoring due to their offense conduct, conduct while in prison, or other verified information.

Due to the mission change at USP Lewisburg, it is proposed that
