12/20/2021	31	STIPULATION AND ORDER: NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the Parties as follows: 1. The Parties agree that, in settlement of Plaintiff's Warrant Record Request, Defendant will implement the following search procedure: a. Defendant will select a sample of individuals from a dataset consisting of individuals who were booked into detention following the issuance of a detainer between October 2014 and November 2020. The sample will consist of fifty individuals per quarter over that time period (the "Sample Set"). b. Defendant will query its electronic records at a headquarters level for each individual within the Sample Set to determine whether there is a draft (meaning unsigned) I-200 warrant associated with that individual (the "Warrant Sample"). c. Within the Warrant Sample, Defendant will remove records associated with individuals subject to statutory privacy prohibitions on disclosure. d. Defendant will process the remaining draft I-200 warrants from the Warrant Sample in accordance with the exemptions delineated at 5 U.S.C. § 552(b). e. After processing, Defendant shall produce the Warrant Sample to Plaintiff. 2. Defendant will conduct the steps outlined in Paragraphs 1(a)-(c) by four months following entry of this Stipulation. Thereafter, Defendant will process the remaining records from the Warrant Sample in accordance with Paragraph 1(d) at a rate of 500 pages per month and produce the resultant records on a rolling basis. 3. In consideration for the search procedure outlined in Paragraphs 1 and 2, Plaintiff agrees to waive her right to challenge Defendant's response to her Warrant Record Request, which includes, but is not limited to, waiver of the right to challenge (a) the adequacy of searches beyond compliance with the search described in this Stipulation, and (b) withholdings applied except the agency's withholding of records from the Warrant Sample that are not justified under Paragraph 1(d) of this Stipulation. 4. The Parties agree that Paragraphs 1-3 do not limit or otherwise waive

		Plaintiff's ability to assert arguments on summary judgment relating to Defendants obligations to respond the Subpoena Record Request. 5. The Parties understand and agree that this Stipulation contains the entire agreement between them, and that any statements, representations, promises, agreements, or negotiations, oral or otherwise, between the Parties that are not included herein shall be of no force or effect. 6. This Stipulation shall be governed by, interpreted under, and construed in accordance with federal law. 7. The Stipulation shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns. 8. If not approved and entered by the Court, this Stipulation shall be null and void, with no force or effect. 9. The Stipulation may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be one and the same. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge John P. 12/01/2023	44	STIPULATION AND ORDER NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between the Parties as follows: 1. The Parties agree that, in settlement of the adequacy of search disputes regarding Plaintiffs Subpoena Record Request, Defendant will implement the following search procedures: a. Defendant will search for and produce an updated version of the Excel spreadsheet entitled 2021-ICLI-00047 Immigration Subpoenas-CAPHQ.xlsx that is current through November 30, 2023. This spreadsheet will be produced first and in an unrestricted, editable, Excel format that is not password-protected. b. Defendant will search for and produce the final, issued version of forty (40) subpoenas (Forms I-138) of Plaintiffs choosing using a list that Plaintiff will provide to Defendant on or before December 8, 2023. These forms will be produced as pdfs that are not password-protected. c. Defendant will conduct a search of the email accounts of each of the assistant field office directors and deputy field office directors who approved administrative subpoenas (Forms I-138) in the following ten field offices: Boston, Chicago, Detroit, New Orleans, New York City, Philadelphia, San Diego, San Francisco, Seattle, and St. Paul, in accordance with the following parameters: i. In conducting this search, Defendant will use the search term I-138 to search all emails (including attachments) sent to and received by those officers, from the period of January 1, 2021, to November 30, 2023. ii. Defendant will produce any and all Forms I-138 identified in this search, but not the accompanying cover emails or other records that used the term I-138. iii. Defendant will process the records described above in accordance with the exemptions delineated at 5 U.S.C. § 552(b), and, after processing, promptly produce the records to Plaintiffs as non-password-protected pdf files. 2. Defendant will conduct and complete the searches outlined in Paragraph 1 by January 31, 2024. Thereafter, Defendant will process the records at a rate of 500 pages per month and produce the resultant records on a rolling basis, with the first production scheduled to be released on February 29, 2024. 3. Upon the final production by Defendant of records under Paragraph 1, Plaintiff shall have 30 days to raise any withholding concerns and the Parties shall thereafter attempt to resolve any dispute concerning withholding. If the Parties resolve their dispute, the Parties agree to enter into a stipulation dismissing this matter; alternatively, if any such dispute cannot be resolved, the Parties agree to propose a summary judgment briefing schedule to the Court. 4. In consideration for the search procedure and productions outlined in Paragraph 1, Plaintiff agrees to waive her right to challenge the adequacy of Defendant's search for records responsive to the Subpoena Record Request, which includes, but is not limited to, waiver of the right to challenge (a) the adequacy of searches beyond compliance with the search described in this Stipulation, and (b) withholdings applied except the agency's withholding in the production of records under Paragraph 1. 5. The Parties agree that Paragraphs 1 through 4 do not limit or otherwise waive Plaintiff's ability to assert arguments on summary judgment relating to the production of, including redactions within, Defendant's response to the Subpoena Records Request, subject to the procedure set forth in Paragraph 3. 6. The Parties understand and agree that this Stipulation contains the entire agreement between them, and that any statements, representations, promises, agreements, or negotiations, oral or otherwise, between the Parties that are not included herein shall be of no force or effect. 7. This Stipulation shall be governed by, interpreted under, and construed in accordance with federal law. 8. The Stipulation shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective successors and assigns. 9. If not approved and entered by the Court, this Stipulation shall be null and void, with no force or effect. 10.
